His Excellency The Right Honorable
Beilby Baron Wenlock G.C.I.E.,
The Governor and President in Council,
Fort Saint George,
Madras.

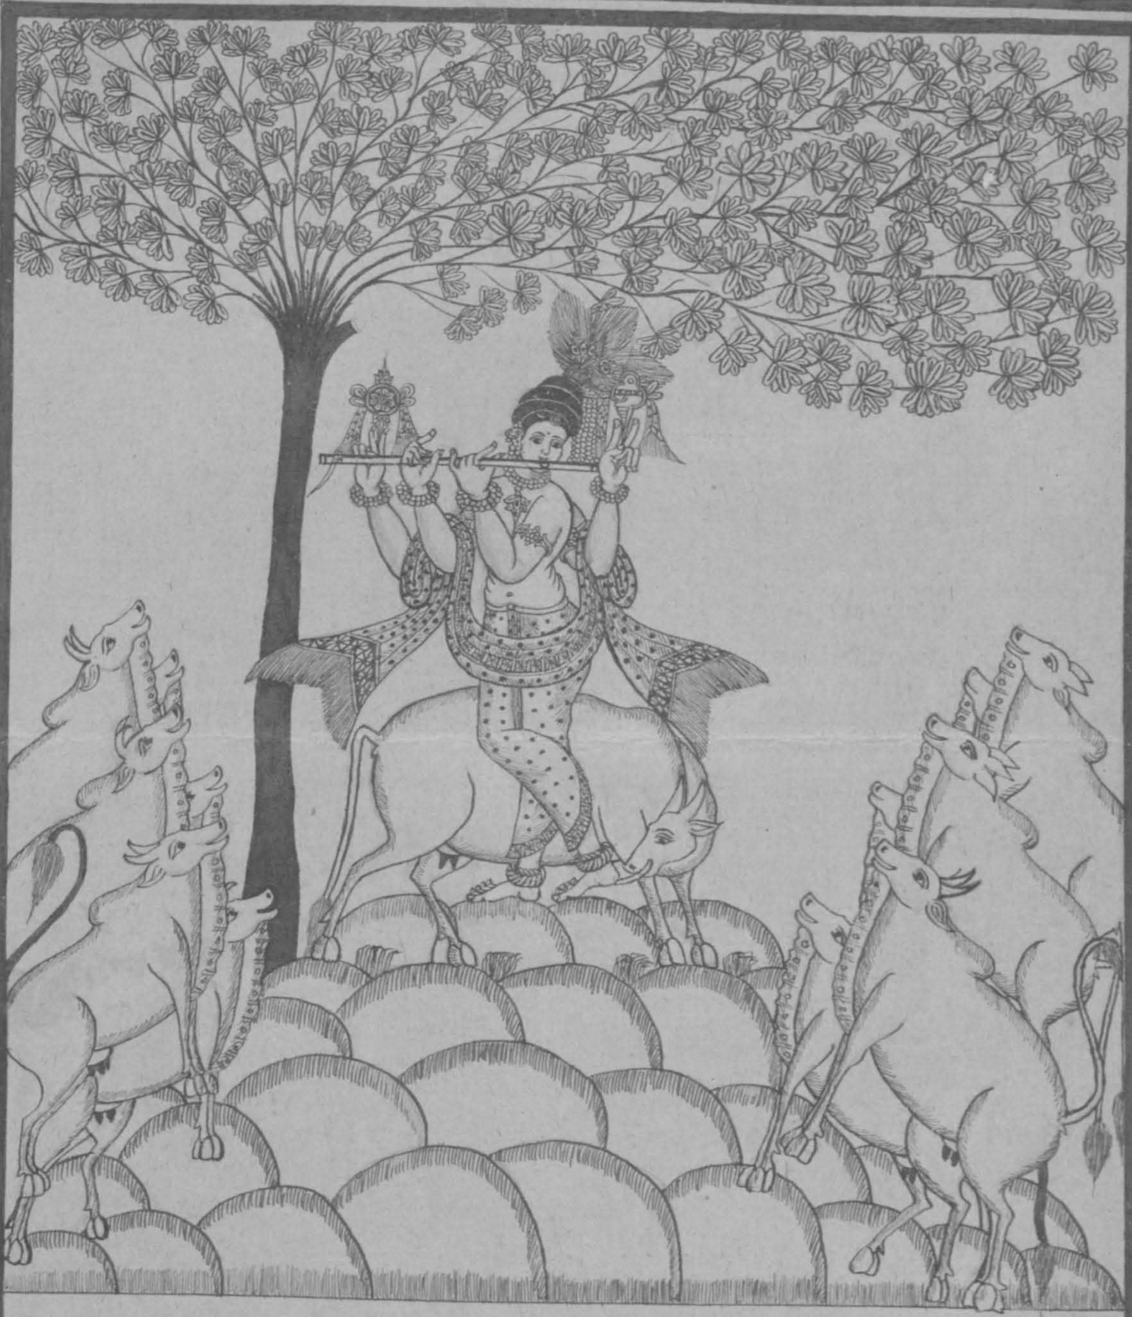
May it please your Excellency in Council.–

The humble memorial of Hindupur Hanumanta Rao a native of Hindupur Anantapur Dist now Ag Clerk in the Tahsildar's Office Madanapalle Taluk, Cuddapah District most respectfully showeth.–

2.– With profound reverence and due submission, your Excellency's humble memorialist most respectfully begs your Excellency to approach with this– his humble memorial– trusting that the prayer contained therein will meet with your Excellency's charitable approval.–

3.– Your Excellency's humble memorialist begs respectfully to state that he had applied for the Matriculation Examination four times commencing from 1886 and the results thereof, led him to serious distress. The poverty did not allow him to continue his studies any further and was therefore obliged to discontinue his studies and further look after his poor large family. Since then, he had, had acting appointments on several occasions in the Revenue Department– as a clerk in the Cuddapah Collector's Office on Rupees 15, for three months as a clerk on Rs 25 in the Cuddapah Inam Dy Collector's Office for one year and a half for which sanction from the Government had been obtained, as a clerk on Rs 15 in the Cuddapah District Board's Office and for the last 8 months he is acting as a clerk in the Tahsildar's Office at Madanapalle. For the last three months he is drawing only half the pay– Rs 7½ per month, a very low sum which cannot suffice his family at least for one meal in a day. So the difficulties to which he is subjected cannot be described through writing in the valuable space of this memorial.

written by H Hanumanta Rao Ag Clerk, Taluk Office, Madanapa



4. During all his acting periods, he has performed his duties to the best satisfaction of his superiors whose sympathy as regards your Excellency's humble memorialist's dormant ability and sense because of his repeated failures in the Matriculation Examination, because of his poor condition, because of his having no means of his livelihood and because of his having not a permanent footing in the Government Service, melted their gold minds and they promised to recommend him to Government for for exemption from the Examination rules and then provide him (from the Examination rules exempted) with a permanent footing in the Government Service. By this time of obtaining this help, a thick cloud hovering over your Excellency's humble memorialist's fortune, came across, and the result was that they, the above Officers, were transferred to remote districts. Since then, your Excellency's humble memorialist is getting on with ever and anon acting appointments. Thus he is very miserably getting on without a permanent means of livelihood, for his poor family.

5. The following are the miserable and meagre circumstances of your Excellency's humble memorialist which have immersed him down the bottom of the ocean of sorrow. I.—He failed in the Matriculation Examination four times commencing from 1886 and passed the Middle School in IInd class. The sad results of these repeated failures, are up to date the severe blows of a trident and the wounds caused to him thereof must only be cured by your Excellency's giving him the medecine of exemption from the Examination rules. II.—Acting appointments cannot be obtained every now and then and to swim in the ocean of unappointed periods along with all his family members, without the aid of a swimming fruit of any kind of property, whether moveable or immoveable whether rich relations or friends indeed causes him very tiresome of thinking to pass away from this world by someway or other. This kind of weariness must only be got rid of by your Excellency's lending a hand of exempting him from the Examination rules. III.— He is entangled in the net of a large family consisting of aged parents, young and scholastic brothers and sisters, and a sickly wife; To describe his poor family difficulties there would be no space in this memorial. The darkness of these difficulties must only be vanished by the crescent light of your Excellency's kind look on him. IV.- His poor family circumstances and his condition of pennilessness do not allow him to continue his studies further on, and this disqualified bareness, must only be clothed well by your Excellency's exempting him as he now ascribes. V.- Your Excellency's humble memorialist is a brahmin of 23 years of age and in this bloom of youthfulness a life which is surrounded by so many difficulties and growing sorrows is merely a burden to the universe. Such a burdensome and poor life as this must only be valued and fed by your Excellency who is specially born to rule the weal of the nations. VI.- Your Excellency's humble memorialist begs permission to approach your Excellency with a few qualifications which he possesses and which by expressing in their true colours may seem to self praising and may displease your Excellency. However, to satisfy himself, he takes this golden opportunity to add them here in as much briefly as is possible. (A) He knows drawing and and good and neat writing &., and this memorial and its enclosures, are his own handwriting and his own composition. (B).- He possesses sufficient knowledge in English so that any post that comes to his lot he will maynage very neatly, nicely, patiently quickly, with perseverence and pleasingly and to the entire satisfaction of his superior Officers (C).- His optional language is Telugu and he also knows Canare and Sanskrit. Specimens of these are herewith submitted. The addition of pictures which he has written in this memorial, though useless in the way of official capacity, he adds them and makes mention of them simply to show that he knows drawing &c. He has not been taught nor trained in any college (D). He can undergo any kind of personal Examination in official capacity so as to be tested whether he will be found fit to be so exempted from the Examination rules.(E).- Your Excellency may well be pleased to test him in person as to his being found eligible to comply with his requests and he will at once attend your Excellency's happy presence on receipt of such favorable orders. He will then find a fair opportunity of being well remunerated by the reflective rays of your Excellency's kindness and pleasure.(F).- He is very much discouraged and depressed for his not having been found a true value and credit to his writings because as he requested above, he was promised to be strongly recommended to harvest the crop of exemption from the Examination rules, but at the same time, the hail stones from the clouds of his bad luck having severely fallen on the crop of such recommendation to your Excellency, the result was, that the produce of such help was vanished away by their transfers, and he himself is not able to come forward to the palace of Government Service because, he cannot freely move in the darkness of his repeated failures and in this darkness of his unpassed condition, he now craves for the brilliant rays of your Excellency's kindness of exempting him from the Examn.;

6.- Besides these, there are many other qualifications and family troubles which he does not like to express here. The perfumed flower of your honor's noble and virtuous heart has spread out its sweet and harmonious scent in all the quarters of this Presidency, by way of aerial motion of doing the most charitable, elaborating and everlasting good deeds and those that are thus enjoying that pleasant and cool gale are so vivid and constant that they are floating on the sea of weal. Such a sweet scented gale as this, if blown on the dirty smell of your Excellency's humble memorialists' poverty and disqualified condition, that bad smell of poverty will indeed fly away in the air like particles of dust in the air and then, he will happily live in this world ever remembering your Excellency's good name; ever praying God for your Excellency's long life and happiness. For this cool breeze, he now craves for.

7. Your Excellency's humble memorialist begs your Excellency's pardon for his having taken the liberty of submitting this memorial to your Excellency, because the river of exemption rises in your Excellency's most charitable hand when he begs to be allowed to make a pure bath so that the dirtiness of his unpassed condition may be washed away by the rapid current current of your Excellency's kindness and then he may become clean of his being exempted by your Excellency and enter into the palace of Government Service without any more ado.

8.–Your Excellency's humble memorialist begs to state that this District is very backward in education; passed candidates are hardly available; and no candidate in this District, has ever been exempted from the Examination rules. To prove this, your Excellency's humble memorialist has now been recommended by the Sub Collector to Government for an acting period of three months as a Taluq Gumastah.

9.–Your Excellency's humble memorialist begs your Excellency to encourage him in his natural exertions so that the insipidity of his exertions, because nobody to taste him, nobody to recommend him, nobody to help him and nobody to help & examine him to see, if he is though an unpassed candidate, eligible for Government Service, may be got rid of and he may taste well and shine well in his writings and may thus roll on his time pleasantly and happily by way of exposing his lively spirits to the services and interests of Government. This encouragement which governs a man's tact he now prays for. If your Excellency is pleased to test him in his writings, he will be found not only the compliance of his requests but also for a very high reward.

10.–In bringing this memorial to a close, your Excellency's humble memorialist most respectfully and humbly begs that your Excellency may be graciously pleased to take pity on him and exempt him from the Examination rules so that a permanent post of Rupees 15 in the Government Service may be bestowed on him when a first vacancy would occur. Your Excellency may also be pleased to introduce him, after exempting him from the Examination rules, in such a Department which requires a very neat writing and drawing &c., with such pay as to suit his family expenses. For which act of kindness, generosity and charity the numerous members of his family and himself, shall, as in duty bound, ever and ever pray God for your Excellency's long life, prosperity, health and wealth.

The following is a piece of poem composed by your Excellency's humble memorialist's own knowledge in consecration to your Excellency and begs your Excellency's pardon if there be any mistakes either in the memorial or the poem and craves your Excellency for early and favorable orders.

1. Success from His Excellency, men swear;
2. The most splendid, lucious and gay sapphire,
3. Worn on the breast of the broad Hemisphere,
4. Is sure to spread its rays on the poor with care.
5. A star, a star esteem'd beloved and bright,
6. In the thickest clouds of poverty thrusts light.
7. As birds at dawn feel gay and rove so far,
8. So they, the subjects feel on sight of the star;
9. A never setting star, so cool, so bright,
10. That sheds its rays on the poor with light,
11. As a servant most faithful loyal and poor,
12. Hanumanta Rao, a native of Hind' pur;

Intensely prays with knees bended to wake,
His able dorment sense for goodness' sake;
O'Lord! Spare him his daily bread content,
With best symbols of praise, he craves constant.
May His Excellency reign long and strong,
May God bless him long life with a song.
May His Excellency's present good name,
Endure as long as the sun and moon in fame;
Ah humble! As may seem this rhyme of zeal,
To His Excellency who rules the nations' weal,
Accept this yet O'Lord, if incorrect,
Comply with his request and thus protect.

Begs to remain, Most Esteemed and Respected Sir, Your Excellency's most obedient Servant.

May it please your Excellency in Council.—

The humble memorial of Hindupur Hanumanta Rao, a native of Hindupur, Anantapur District, now acting clerk in the Tahsildar's Office Madanapalle Taluk, Cuddapah District, most respectfully — showeth:—

2. With profound reverence and due submission, your Excellency's humble — memorialist most respectfully begs to — approach your Excellenty with this,— his humble memorial — trusting that the prayer contained therein, will meet — with your Excellency's charitable approval

3. Your Excellency's humble memorialist begs respectfully to state that he had applied for the Matriculation Examination 4 times commencing from 1886 and the results thereof led him to serious distress. His poverty did not allow him to continue his studies any further and was therefore obliged to discontinue his studies and look after his poor large family. Since then, he had, had acting appointments on on several occasions in the Revenue — Department — as a clerk in the Collector's Office on Rupees 15 per month for three months at Cuddapah, as a clerk on Rs 25 in the Cuddapah Inam Deputy Collector's Office for one year and a half for which sanction from the Government had been obtained, as a clerk on Rs. 15 in the District Board's Office at Cuddapah and for the last 8 months, he is acting as a clerk in the Tahsildar's Office at Madanapalle Cuddapah District. For the last 3 months, he is drawing only half the pay, – 7½ Rs per month – a very low sum which cannot suffice for his family at least for one meal in a day. So the difficulties to which he is subjected, cannot be descriibed through writing.

4.– During all his acting periods he has performed his duties to the best satisfaction of his superiors, whose sympathy as regds your Excellency's humble memorialist's dorment ability and sense, because of his repeated failures in the Matriculation Examination, because of his poor condition, because of his having no means of livelihood, and because of his having not a permanent means of Government footing, melted their gold minds and they promised to recommend him for exemption from the the Examination rules, and then provide him with a permanent footing in the Government Service. By this time of obtaining help from the above Officers, a ~~a~~ thick cloud hovering over the fortune of your Excellency's humble memorialist came across, and the result was they, the above Officers, were transferred to remote Districts. – Since then, your Excellency's humble memorialist gets with ever and anon acting appointments. Thus, he is very miserably getting on without a permanent means of livelihood.

5. The following are the miserable and meagre circumstances of your Excellency's humble memorialist which have immersed him down the bottom of the ocean of sorrow.

I.– He failed in the Matriculation Examination four times commencing from the the year 1886, and passed the Middle School in IInd Class. The sad results of these repeated failures are, up to date, the severe blows of a trident and the wounds caused to him thereof, must only be cured by your Excellency, by giving him the medicine of exemption from the Examination rules.

II.– Acting appointments cannot be obtained every now and then, and to swim in the ocean of unappointed periods, along with all his family members, without the aid of a swimming fruit of any kind of property whether moveable or immoveable whether rich relations or friends, indeed, causes him very tiresome of thinking to pass away from this world by someway or other. This kind of weariness must only be got rid of by your Excellency's lending a hand of exempting him from the Examination rules.

III.– Your Excellency's humble memorialist is entangled in the net of a large family consisting of 8 members of aged parents, young and scholastic brothers and sisters and a sickly wife. For all this family, he is the only one to provide all the wants. To describe these and many other family difficulties which have surrounded him, there would be no space in this memorial. The darkness of these difficulties must only be vanished by the crescent light of your Excellency's kind look on him.

IV.– His poor family circumstances and his condition of pennilessness, do not allow him to continue his studies further on and this disqualified bareness must only be clothed well by your Excellency's exempting him, as he now ascribes.

V.- Your Excellency's humble memorialist is a brahmin of 23 years of age and in this bloom of youthfulness, a life which is surrounded by so many difficulties and growing sorrows, is merely a burden to the universe. Such a burdensome and poor life as this, must only be valued and fed by your Excellency who is especially born to rule the weal of the nations.

VI Your Excellency's humble memorialist begs permission to approach your Excellency with a few qualifications which he possesses, and which, by expressing in their true colors, may seem to be self-praising and may displease your Excellency. However, to satisfy himself, he takes this golden opportunity to add them here, in as much briefly as is possible.

(A).- He knows drawing and good and neat writing &c., and this memorial and its enclosures are his own handwriting and composition.

(B).- He possesses sufficient knowledge in English so that any post that comes to his lot, he can manage very neatly, nicely, patiently, with perseverance, and quickly and to the entire satisfaction ~~of~~ of his superiors.

(C).- His optional language is Telugu and he also knows Canare and ~~and~~ Sanskrit. Specimens of these are herewith submitted. The addition of pictures which he has written in this memorial, though useless in the way of official capacity, yet he adds here and makes mention of them, simply to show that he knows drawing &c. He has not been taught, nor, trained in any college.

(D).- He can undergo any kind of personal Examination in official capacity, so as to tested ~~him~~ whether he will be found fit to be so exempted from the Examination rules.

(E).- Your Excellency may well be pleased to test him in person as to his being found eligible to comply with his requests and he will at once ~~at once~~ attend your Excellency's happy presence on receipt of favorable orders. He will then find a fair opportunity for his writings of being well remunerated by the reflective rays of your Excellency's kindness and pleasure.

(F).- He is very much discouraged and depressed for his not having been found a true value and credit to his writings because, as he requested about the recommendations above, he was promised to be strongly recommended to harvest the crop of exemption from the Examination rules, but, at the same time, the hailstones from the clouds of his bad luck having severely fallen on the crop of such recommendation to your Excellency, the result was that the grain of such help was vanished by their transfers, and he himself is not able to come forward to the palace of Government Service, because, he cannot freely move in the darkness of his repeated failures, and in this darkness of his unpassed condition, he now craves for the brilliant rays of your Excellency's kindness of exempting him from the Examinations.

6.- Besides these, there are ~~may~~ many other miserable family circumstances and qualifications which he does not like to express here. To

The Honorable The CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,
Fort St. George.

Sir,

I have the honour, in returning the petitio from Hindupur Hanumantha Rau, transmitte to me with G.O. No. 814, Educational, dated 9th October 1895, to state that no opportunity has yet presented itself for my employing him in th Department. He has not passed any public examination in Drawing, and even if he wer taken into the School of Arts and afterwards p an examination in the subject he could not be employed as a Drawing Master on Rs 15 an above in a Government school unless he pass the Matriculation Examination and the Handwri test. He does not seem to possess the scholarly attainments needed for employment as a Pandi

This does not [illegible] correct.

The Govt did not suggest that he should be employed as a Pandit

FOR ORDERS.

Please see G.O. no. 814 Ed.,

The Director's statement that Hanumanta Rao, even after the pas a public examination in Drawi cannot be appointed a Drawin master in a Govt School, as h has not passed the matriculati examination and handwriting test is not correct. Please se art 5 (iv). ch. VI of the Madras Ed. Rules. A Drawing master i required to hold only a technical teacher's certificate in Drawing not an upper secondary teacher's certificate. To obtain a techn teacher's certificate no one i required to pass the matricula examination, much less the ha writing test. vide art 24. ch I of the Madras Ed. Rules an art 8 (ii) of the Govt. Technical examination notification printed in G.O. no. 45 Ed. d 25th Jany 93. There is no general education test prescribed for admission into the School of arts – vide art 3 of the rules in G.O. no 671 Ed. d 14th oct 86. Hanumanta Rao can therefore be admitted into the School of arts and from there pass the Intermediate or Advanced examn. in Drawing & thus Qualify for a Drawing mastership in a Govt. School.

ar

It seems doubtful, however, whether he will consider it worth while to do this. The above facts m perhaps be pointed out to the DPI & he be left to act as he chooses.

These elegant pen-men are not of much use as copyists. I had two of them and they were as slow as snails.

This may be pointed out to the D.P.I., but I don't think a case is made out for exemption from the Examination rules. Petr. may be told so.

Govt. order No. 386, d 25 June 1896.

The D.P.I.'s reference to the Native Exn. & the ... is not understood. A drawing master does not appear to require more than technical certificates in drawing. The petr. could enter the S. of Arts & appear for the technical Exns. in drawing if he cared to do so but it seems doubtful whether he wd. consider such a course worth while. The D.P.I. will be requested to acquaint him with the rules in the matter.
