His Excellency

The Right Hon'ble

The Governor-in-Council

May it please Your Excellency

The humble petition of Ahmed ali Mahomed residing at Mowbray Road, Royapettah, Madras.

Most Respectfully sheweth,

That Your Excellency's
humble petitioner is the son of the late Mohomad Asad Hussain Sahib, who died on the 20th March 1896, and who during his lifetime drew a pension of Rs 27/- The pension, it is believed in accordance with a G.O. passed some years back will be reduced to half and be granted to your petitioner's mother. Under these circumstances your petitioner's mother is unable to educate the petitioner as well as other children; and he has therefore to give up prosecuting his studies for the Matriculation Examination and secure appointment for his livelihood. But as Your Excellency's petitioner has not passed the necessary examination qualifying for posts in the Public Service he is unable to secure one, and he therefore before now addresses Your Excellency. (2) Kindly take his unfortunate case into consideration and exempt him from passing the Upper Secondary Examination that he could qualify for the Special Examinations and enter the Public Service.

2. Your petitioner begs to state that he has passed the Lower Secondary Examination and appeared for the Matriculation Examination last year but failed. He is now studying in the Wesleyan Mission College, Madras, and for the reason set forth above has to leave it to seek an employment.

3. Your Excellency's petitioner begs further to state that he is the great grandson of Nawab Saadatullah Khan, former sovereign of the Carnatic, and is lineally descended from Nawab Nucktis Ali Khan "the famous" Commander-in-Chief of Tippu Sultan of historic fame. He is a grand nephew of Nawab Padshaw Begum Sahiba, daughter of the Jaghirdar of Culva and wife of Nawab Azeemud Dowlah of the Carnatic reputation. He is also a near relation of Rahatunnisah Begum Sahiba and Padshaw Begum Sahiba, the first ladies of Nawab Ameerul-Omrak and Wallajah respectively. These facts Your Excellency's petitioner begs to state could be verified by Paymaster Carnatic.

4. From the preceding paragraph will be seen that Your Excellency's petitioner is descended from the nobles of Southern India, and as the paternal Government evinces an interest in promoting the welfare and status of Muhammadans of noble descent, Your Excellency's petitioner humbly hopes that his case may be suitably dealt with as others of his community descent have hitherto been. In this connection Your Excellency's petitioner begs respectfully to remind Your Excellency that the Secretary of State in one of his Despatches on the Question of Simultaneous Examination expressed a wish that the sons of the once ruling families and warlike of India should be granted a concession of entering the higher branches services Government without being required to pass the necessary examinations qualify for such posts. But Your Excellency's petitioner begs to state that he does not desire that such a concession should be granted him, but if he be only exempted from the operation of the Upper Secondary Examination he would be most thankful and would endeavour to his utmost to qualify successfully for such examination as would enable him to enter the higher branches of the Public Service.

5. Your petitioner begs to at Royapetta Madras.

Most Respectfully sheweth,

That your Excellency's
humble petitioner, is the son of the late Muhammad Assad Husain Sahib, who died on the 20th March 1896, and who during his lifetime drew a pension of Rs 27/-.

This pension has now been reduced to half's and given to your petitioner's mother.

With the understanding, that it will lapse after her death. With this reduced pension your petitioner's mother, is unable to educate the petitioner, as well as other children, and he has therefore to give up prosecuting his study, for the Matriculation Examination, and seek appointment for his livelihood. But, as your Excellency's petitioner has not passed the necessary Examinations, qualifying for posts, and in the Public Service, he is unable to secure one, and, he therefore, now addresses Your Excellency, to kindly take his unfortunate case into consideration, and exempt him from passing the Upper Secondary Examination, so that he could qualify for the Special Test Examinations.

2. Your petitioner begs to state, that he has passed the Lower Secondary Examination, and appeared for the Matriculation Examination last year, but failed. He is now studying in the Wesleyan Mission College, and for the reason set forth above, has to leave it, to seek an employment.

3. Your Excellency's petitioner further begs to state, that he is the Great Grandson of Nawab Saadatullah Khan former Sovereign of the Carnatic, and is lineally descended from Nawab Mucklis Ali Khan, the famous cousin of Nawab Chunda Saheb. He is a grand nephew of Nawab Padshaw Begum Saheba, daughter of the Jaghirdar of Culva, and wife of Nawab Azeemud Dowlah of the Carnatic fame. He is also a near relation of Rahut-unni-sah Begum Saheba, and Padshaw Begum Saheba, the first ladies of, Nawab Ameerul-omrah Wallajah respectively. As the Paternal Government takes a lively interest, to promote the welfare and status of descendants of the once ruling families, and the warlike races of India, in compliance of the Secretary of State's Despatch, on the Simultaneous Examination questions, Your Excellency's petitioner, humbly hopes that as he is descended from the Carnatic Nobility, his petition may be favourably considered, and the exemption prayed for, granted.

4. Your petitioner begs to submit copies of his testimonials regarding his character, and educational qualifications, and respectfully hopes that a perusal of them, will satisfy Your Excellency as to your petitioner's respectability and conduct.

5. In conclusion your Excellency's petitioner humbly states, that were it not for the straitened circumstances of his family, caused by the recent death of his father, he would not seek such aid, but for the reasons stated above he is unable to continue his study,

He begs that your Excellency - in - Council will take his unfortunate case into consideration, and pass the necessary orders, exempting him from passing the Upper Secondary Examination, so that he may be able to appear for some of the Special Tests, and secure a good appointment in the Public Service, for which act of kindness Your petitioner in duty bound will ever pray.

Sir,

* Herewith returned.

With reference to your endorsement No: 1016 dated 15th May 1896 on petition current No: 531 from Ahmed Ali Makkery, I have the honor to state that in my estimation the petitioner is a deserving lad, respectable and of excellent character as shown by the testimonials he has submitted. Owing to the recent death of his father a Carnatic Stipendiary, he is without any means to pro-secute his further studies and for the present will be supported in the allowance of Rs 13-8-0 his widowed mother will succeed to under the rules. Under these circumstances I would respectfully recommend his being granted the favor he prays for, in doing so I do not lose sight of the good reasons for deprecating applica-tions of this nature given in G.O. No: 93 dated 3rd May 1882 but submit his case for favorable consideration as a special one, and because he is the son of a Carnatic Stipendiary while the applicant referred to in the G.O.

I herein beg to enclose the original testi-monials of the petitioner, together with a certificate of his having passed the Lower Secondary Examination.

I have the honor to be
