The Chief Secretary
to Government
Educational Department
Madras

Through

The Collector of Ganjam

The humble petition of Karan-
pur Jagannadharao, Vernacular Head
Clerk and Acting English Head Clerk of the Ganjam Collector's Office,

Respectfully sheweth,

That your petitioner entered Government Service in the year 1873 as a clerk in the Ganjam Collector's Office,
having previously passed the late General
Test Examination

That he held different Clerkships up to January 1882, when he was appointed Head Clerk of the Governor's Agents Office. By that time he passed all the Special Tests required for a Tahsildar except the Revenue Test, Lower Grade, also

That he continued as Acting Head Clerk up to December 1886, and had to accompany the then Agents Messrs.

Goodrich

Goodrich and Horstall once or twice every year to the Hills, where he contracted malarial fever and stomach ache. On return from the Agency tours his health was much too shattered to allow of study in addition to office work. He was Magisterial Clerk from 1886 to January 1891, when he was made Vernacular Head Clerk. In the former capacity he had not only to do both Magisterial and Military work, but also to follow the Collector in almost all the tours throughout the District. Petitioner had, therefore, very little spare time for study. Although petitioner was Magisterial Clerk still he was taken once more to the Hills by Mr. Horstall, specially because of his knowledge of Agency work and the ill health of the then Agency Head Clerk. He went to the Hills 9 times in all. From 1891 until seven months ago he continued as Vernacular Head Clerk in which capacity also he had to accompany the Collector in almost all his tours. It will be clear from the above that since January 1882, petitioner has been Agency Head Clerk, Magisterial

So he was appointed English
Head Clerk seven months ago.

Magisterial Clerk, or Vernacular Head Clerk, and working under the direct supervision of the Collector, had to frequently go with him to camp. Hence his inability for study.

4. That the enclosed copies of testimonials show how petitioner discharged his duties in the above three appointments and what opinion his superiors had of his work and general conduct and abilities. To be brief, petitioner begs to specially refer to the certificates granted by Messrs. Foster, Sewell, Horstall and Johnson dated 16-5-85, 12-10-85, 26-4-90 and 4-3-93 respectively.

5. That your petitioner, seeing that the Examination Rules were becoming more and more stringent, appeared in 1892 for the Revenue Test, Lower Grade, without Account Code, and came out successful. Vide Fort Saint George Gazette Supplement dated 21st February 1893. But thinking that he might pass the Account Test at any time, he did not apply for the same in 1893 owing to heavy pressure then pressure of work. In 1894 he was appointed Manager of the Peddaturneri Estate, the Climate of which is admittedly unhealthy. There again he had to visit the Hills of the Estate and contracted fever which disabled him from appearing for the Test in 1894.

6. That the Government having subsequently ordered that such of the candidates as passed the Revenue Test, without Account Code, should complete the same by passing in the Account Test before 1895, petitioner appeared for it in 1895, but unfortunately failed for want of sufficient study from pressure of office work and in consequence of stomach-ache which troubled him for nearly two months now and then before the Examination.

7. That your petitioner is now in his forty second year, an age long past the plastic period of youth adapted to regular study for examinations. He has been serving the Government for the last 22 years faithfully and zealously as testified by his testimonials.

8. That, having failed in the Account Test last year, the petitioner is required by the present rules to pass again in the Revenue Test in addition to the Account Test and has also to vacate his present Acting post of English Head Clerk.

9. That petitioner, according to present rules, is debarred from all further promotion unless and until he passes in the Revenue and Account tests this year as, being a General Test man, he cannot moreover appear for the Special Tests after 1896.

10. Petitioner, therefore, humbly prays that the Government be pleased, in consideration of his long service, his advanced age and the "good service" rendered by him, to view his case as an exceptional ~~case~~ one and exempt him from passing in the Revenue and Account Test which have recently been separated by the Government notification printed in G.O. No 317 Educational, dated 9-5-94 or at least to allow him to pass in the Account Test only within the next three years and thus complete the Revenue Test he already passed in 1893.

And he who, as in duty
bound, will ever pray.

your most obedient and
humble servant

Chabapur } Kapannath Rao

TESTIMONIALS OF KARAMPUDI JAGANNATHAROW PANTULU.

Extract from Mr. E. K. Johnson's letter to C. G. Master Esquire, Collector, Magistrate and Agent in Ganjam dated 14th February 1874.

K. Jagannadharao has been in the office for nearly nine months. I found him trustworthy, zealous, anxious to please and hard working.

Chatrapur,
14th February 1874. }

(Signed) E. K. JOHNSON,
Eng. Hd. Clerk.

Karampudi Jagannadharow having asked me for a Certificate I told him to produce the opinion of the head of the Department in which he has been working. It appears to be a satisfactory one and I can add nothing to it.

14th February 1874.

(Signed) C. G. MASTER,
Collector.

I have much pleasure in stating that during the short period I have filled the post of English Head clerk in the Collector's Office at Ganjam I have always found K. Jagannadharow an useful intelligent and willing hand and I have never had any occasion to find fault with him. He seems to be acquainted with almost the whole work of the Current Department.

26th August 1874.

(Signed) W. CRANSTON,
Eng. Hd. Clerk.

A young man of intelligence. Will probably do well.
5th May 1877.

(Signed) C. G. MASTER,
Collector.

Extract from the Endorsement of the Collector on my application for the post of Head Clerk Revenue Settlement Dy. Director's Office, Parlakimedi.

"The petitioner has given me satisfaction".
29th April 1880.

(Signed) W. D. HORSLEY,
Ag. Collector.

K. Jagannadharao is a very smart public officer. He deserves promotion. Is very intelligent and has given me satisfaction in the discharge of his duties.
4-2-1882.

(Signed) Henry L. HOWELL,
Dy. Collector.

K. Jagannadharow, Head Clerk in the Agents Office, has for the last two months been engaged on special duty under me in examining the accounts of some fifty villages in preparing the remission accounts of which there appeared to have been fraud on the part of the village officers. The work is a kind in which the clerk had had no previous experience; but notwithstanding, he has done it very well and thoroughly & displayed much care and perseverance. He has earned my sincere approbation by the way in which he has acquitted himself.

(Signed) H. W. FOSTER,
Senior Asst Collector.

On the two occasions in which I have acted as Collector K. Jagannadharow has been Agency Clerk and I have also seen him with the Agent in the Maliahs.

He works well and has always given me full satisfaction.

Telegram to the Governor's Agent, Vizagapatam recommending for the post of Agency Manager Vizagapatam.

Recommend my Agency clerk for vacant post Vizagapatam.
16th October 1885.

(Signed) J. G. HORSFALL,
Agent.

Extract from the Ganjam Agent's reply telegram to the Vizagapatam Governor's Agent's Telegram.
"Agency Clerk knows Oriya and Magisterial work well, prepares returns and reports for Government and High Court."

(Signed) J. G. HORSFALL,
Agent to the Governor.

20th October 1885.

I have nothing to add to my previously expressed opinion of Jagannadharow. The fact that he has been promoted by me is sufficient indication that I have been satisfied with his work.

Chatrapur,

(Signed) E. J. SEWELL,
Ag. Collector.

Jagannadharow the Agency Head Clerk has been on tour with me three years in the Maliah tracts. He is thoroughly well up in the Agency work and drafts the report. He is anxious, however, to get a transfer from the Agency to the Regular Department and I had intended to arrange for this when a suitable vacancy occurred.

(Signed) J. G. HORSFALL,
Collector and Agent.

30th March 1886.

Extract from the Agent's Hill Tour Report dated 29-9-1884, No. 50 (for 1883-84) recorded in G. O. 3-1-1885 No. 3 Judl. Para 56.

My tours were attended with an almost entire absence of fever. Myself and Head Clerk K. Jagannadharow, who accompanied me throughout both tours and did good service, escaped entirely.

(Signed) J. G. HORSFALL,
Agent.

Extract from the Agent's Hill Tour Report (for 1884-85) dated 16th September 1885 No. 647 para 95. Recorded in G. O. dated 25-1-86 No. 223 Judl.

I was accompanied through both tours by my Head Clerk K. Jagannadharow who has acquired a thorough knowledge of the Maliahs and is perfectly competent for a Magistrates Post when a vacancy occurs.

(Signed) J. G. HORSFALL,
Agent.

Para 115 of the Agent's Report to Government for 1885-86 dated 9-12-86 Extra No. 109 recorded in G. O. dated 5-4-87 No. 746 Judl.

The services of K. Jagannadharow the Agent's Head Clerk, were of much value during the tour. Mr. Horsfall left a note recommending him for promotion which has been given to him and will be permanent if my nominations for the appointment of Tahsildar of Goomsur and the resultant promotions meet with approval.

(Signed) E. J. SEWELL,
Ag. Collector.

K. Jagannadharow has served immediately under me for several years in the Agency and Magisterial sides. He has also had the Abkari work to do. I have ever found him a willing and hard worker and hope he will shortly get promotion to the post of Submagistrate. Promotion in the Ganjam District is slow or he would have been put in by me before this.

(Signed) J. G. HORSFALL,
Collector.

26th April 1890.

Karampudi Jagannadharow has been Magisterial Clerk, and Vernacular Head Clerk during the 3 years of my tenure as Collector here. He has given me satisfaction in both Capacities. He is intelligent; and very thorough in his work; of pleasing manners, & considerable application. I shall always be pleased to hear of his advance.

ORDER. No 424. D 11 July 1896.

... Gangam ...
... 9/7/96 ...

The petitioner's request cannot be granted but he will be informed that if he was appointed as acting English Head Clerk before the rule prescribing the Rev. Test, Lower Grade, for that post came into force, he would, under note 1 in the preamble to the Public Service notification, be eligible for confirmation in it.

18/4/96 18/7/96
To the Govt of Gangam ...
The petitioner's request to be allowed to appear for the Account Code during the next three years is against the decision arrived at in G.O. 618 Ed. 18-8-94. And there seems to be no reason to exempting him from passing the Rev. Test, Lower grade.

These tests were prescribed for the post of English Head clerk in clause (21) of G.O. no. 317 Ed. & 9th May 94 + the rule came into force on the 1st January '96 - vide clause (30) of the above go. Jagimathia Rao seems to have been appointed Eng. Head clerk in October or November 1895 - vide para 3 of the petition. He can therefore be confirmed in the appointment if it falls permanently vacant before the termination of the acting incumbent.

Exemption from the
G.O. rules.
