J. Lakshmanachariulu	Temporary Clerk on Rs 20	permanently	permanently	16 th May 96 First application please see letter No 1158 of 4-4-96.	Recommended for permanent exemption for employment as temporary clerk on Rs 20 in Begurda Stores on the ground noted in Col 8.	1 Long temporary Service rendered 2 Technical Knowledge in the Store Branch of the Department 3 Scarcity of passed men	The Store work is tedious & requires patience Experience & acquaintance with theomenclature of the different stores in order to identify them. That one without this knowledge cannot do the store work with the same ease & absence of confusion with which one with knowledge could do it goes without saying. These qualifications the applicant has. Secondly the stores must be permanently manned. (Changes in the Establishment cause confusion & consequently mistakes & delay in the discharge of business occur. of late there have been many changes & the store returns are not as prompt as they should be. Thirdly there are no passed men available for the post.

Forwarded to the Chief Engineer, P. W. Department, for favourable consideration. The exemption of the applicant from the Examination Rules was refused on a former occasion, but in reference to a different appointment. (G. O. No. 177 W & 29.3.95)

FOR ORDERS.

There was no sufficient ground alleged in the former letter with said nothing about special store knowledge, & asked: for a general exemption in the regard to post of Rs 20 but might be some reason. Now there is a vacancy in the store and special store knowledge is required. Under these circumstances the exemption may be granted
