It would seem sufficient if the officer responsible for the payment had certified that he had made such enquiry under Art. 27 of the C.A. Code as he deemed sufficient, & had applied with such certificate for the sanction of the Act. General to the payment of the Bill under Art 5 of the Code. The Act. Genl. would have then been under no obligation to hold any enquiry.

Sir,

I have the honor to inform you that Yerramsetti A.K.Kayya was School master of the Government School at Rajavommangi in Yellavaram Division. He died about September 1892 leaving two brothers, a widow and a daughter behind him. Rs 62-8-0 were due to him up to the date of his death, being his pay from April to end of August 1892. The Junior Superintendent of Hill Schools who drew the money reccredited it to the Sub Treasury at Peddapur as he was unable to decide as to who should be paid the money. At the same time he called upon the pay to produce a certificate of heirship.

In 1895 the widow of A.K. Kanya presented a petition requesting the payment of the amount but from the inquiry held by the Tahsildar of Proddapur it was found that the deceased and his brothers were divided, that the widow became an outcaste and was living with a toddy-drawer and that the remaining claimant, the minor daughter Veeramma, was living with her maternal uncle Adapa Venkataswamy, her guardian.

My predecessor directed that the money should be paid to the minor daughter's guardian on the minor's behalf under article 27 of the Civil Account Code as the Junior Superintendent reccredited the money to Chitta without making any inquiries into the subject.

2. A bill for the amount was submitted to the Accountant General through you for sanction but it has been returned with the remark that claims to arrears of pay which have remained in abeyance for a period exceeding two years cannot be investigated by his office except under the Special orders of the Local Government and quoted article 5 as amended by the 24th list of corrections of the Civil Account Code as his authority - vide his no 2act dated 27-5-96 received 80 D with your Dis: on C. no 266 dated agency 6-6-96 herewith resubmitted for reference.

3. I have the honor now to request you will be good enough to address the Government on the subject for sanction of the disbursement. The connected pay bill is enclosed.

Submitted to Government for sanction.

I agree with the Special Asstt

Agent in thinking the minor daughter Veeramma the next heir to the deceased School Master and accordingly recommend the pay-ment, to her guardian on her behalf, of the arrears of pay (Rs 62-8-4) due to the deceased at the time of his death. It is therefore requested that the Accountant General may be authorized to do the needful in the matter and to order payments accordingly. The connected pay bill is herewith Submitted.
