To

The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Sir,

I beg most respectfully to request permission to appear at Madras for the London Matriculation Examination of January 1897, on account of which I submit herein enclosed

(1) a treasury receipt for the fees (2 £)

(2) a certificate of Age.

(3) a certificate of character.

(4) a statement showing the second language and science selected.

2. I have been exempted by G.O. No. 27 dated 30th April 1896, from the necessity of producing the usual certificate that I have a reasonable chance of success at the examination.

I beg most respectfully to remain, Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,
