Sir,

With reference to your letter No. 1394, dated the 22nd May 1896, I have the honour to inquire whether a permanent advance of say about Rs 500 will not meet the difficulty you now experience in submitting separate bills for each of the examinations held by you. You can meet the charges connected with these examinations from the permanent advance and when it is likely to run short, you can submit separate bills to this Office for the amount spent on account of each examination, and thus reconp your permanent advance. If this arrangement suits you, I beg to suggest that an application

application be made to Government at an early date for sanction to draw this or any smaller amount as a permanent advance.

I have to.

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER

FOR GOVERNMENT EXAMINATIONS,

Madras, 17th July 1896.

From

THE HON'BLE MR. D. DUNCAN, M.A., D.Sc., LL.D.,

COMMISSIONER FOR GOVERNMENT EXAMINATIONS,

Madras,

To

THE HON'BLE THE CHIEF SECRETARY

TO GOVERNMENT,

Fort St. George.

SIR,

In connection with the Government Examinations under my control, I have to draw advances from time to time of Rupees (500) Five hundred, or of larger or smaller amounts. Arrangements have to be made concurrently for several examinations at a time, because they are held either simultaneously, or within short intervals of one another. Again, it is not only charges on account of examinations that are to be held, but also unpaid charges on account of examinations that have been held, that have to be paid out of an advance drawn. In the case of the Primary Examination, charges on account of telegrams and Service stamps

may may have to be paid almost every month, as correspondence has practically to be held all through the year with the Chairmen of the various boards. It is thus not practicable for me, when drawing an advance, to state in connection with how many examinations it may have to be expended, or what portion of it will be required on account of each Examination. The Accountant-General, who was informed to this effect, inquires whether 'a permanent advance of say about Rs 500 will not meet the difficulty?' I am of opinion that the course suggested by the Accountant-General may very well be adopted, and in submitting herewith a copy of his letter, I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to sanction a permanent advance to my office of Rupees (500). Five hundred on account of the Government Examinations under my control.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most Obedient Servant,

J. Dorman

Commissioner.
