Letter from the Executive Eng District Eastern Division, to the Examiners, P. W. Accounts, Madras, No 766, of 15th May 1894

I have the honor to state that from the remarks against Price's writing Test entered in the Schedule B appended to the Revised Public Service Notification pub- lished on page 208 of the Fort Saint George Gazette, dated 5th Instant, it is observed that a Ministerial officer who on 1st July 1894, was in receipt of a salary less than Rs 1000 per annum, should pass the Test before promotion to higher pay. Mr. Krishna Rao Panthulu, Head clerk of my office was promoted to his present grade of 60-2-80 in April 1881 and has been in receipt of Rs 8 of the maximum pay of his grade since 1st September, 1893, and does not apparently come under the category of the above ruling. I request to know whether Krishna Rao can be promoted to a higher grade when a vacancy occurs without being required to pass the Price's vide No 343 of 21-5-94

vide note 3 to the Public Service Notification for Examiners purposes his pay is only Rs 75 writing Lest.

Reply from the Examiner, P.W. Accounts Madras, to the Executive Engineer, District Eastern Division, No 1538 of, dated Madras June 3rd 1896.

With reference to your No 766 of 15th May, 1896, I have the honour to state that you should refer the matter for the orders of Government through the Superintending Engineer.

Forward with remarks copy of En Eng's letter enquiring if - is required to pass the Precise Writing Test before he is promoted a higher grade, for orders.

Order
The question will be answered in the negative.
2. It is observed that the clerk in question was allowed to draw the maximum pay of his appointment under G.O. no. 343 Ed. 8 21st May 1894.

Note.
The clerk has not passed the Precise-writing test & on that score was not allowed to draw the maximum pay of his appointment - viz Rs 60. The maximum pay was allowed to him in G.O. no 343 Ed. 8 21-5-94 & this concession should not be held to have exempted him from passing the Precise writing test.

As his pay is less than Rs 80, he must pass the precise writing test before he can be promoted to a post drawing higher pay. The concession cannot however be considered to have been operated to exempt him from the Precise-writing test, and

Under note (3) to the Public Service Notification the pay of the clerk in question must for the purposes of the notification be treated as being Rs 75. He The clerk in question is drawing Rs 80 ^{only in consequence of} the concession granted in G.O. no. 343 Ed. 8 21st May 1894; he is not therefore eligible for promotion to any post carrying higher pay without passing the Precise writing test.

7/6
24/7.

For orders.

Note.

Before 1st July 1894, ministerial officers holding posts carrying salaries of Rs 60 + upwards were required to have passed the Precise writing test & when the Precise writing test was extended to posts carrying salaries between Rs 60 & Rs 80, it was ruled that all ministerial officers in receipt of salaries less than Rs 80 but not less than Rs 60 should pass the test before they are promoted to any posts carrying higher pay. The clerk in question holds a post the pay of which is Rs 60 rising to Rs 80. On the score that the clerk has not passed passed the Precis writing test, the maximum pay of the appointments viz- Rs 80 was long refused to him. In 1894 it was decided that appointments carrying incremental pay should be treated, for the purposes of the summary rules, as appointments carrying a fixed pay equal to the average pay calculated according to art 164 C.S.R. - vide G.O. no 261 Ed 20th April 1894. & the clerk in question & others were permitted to draw their fifth increments in G.O. no 343 Ed 21st May 1894. The clerk is thus not entitled to be regarded as having passed the test exempted from the Precis writing test. The following order is suggested:

24/7" order no. 47387 dated 24/7" for the purposes of the P.S. Notice the pay of the clerk in question must be treated as Rs 75 under note 3. to the Notice. He is (only) drawing Rs 80 under the concession granted in G.O. 343 Ed. 21. 5. 94. This concession does not exempt him from the precis-writing test, and as his pay on 1st July 1894 was less than Rs 80 but not less than Rs 60, he must pass the test before he can be eligible for promotion to any post carrying higher pay.
