TESTIMONIALS.

MADRAS, 21st January 1896.

I have known P. RAJAGOPAL NAIDU, Examiner in the Copyist Department, Small Cause Court, for a long time to be very intelligent and well behaved person; and is deserving of promotion.

(Signed) P. SREENEVASA ROW,
City Civil Judge.

COURT OF SMALL CAUSES,
MADRAS, 20th January 1895.

I have known P. RAJAGOPAL NAIDU, Examiner in the Copyist Department, since 1886 when I joined this Court as Head Clerk and can testify to the satisfactory manner in which he has worked under me. He is an intelligent and hard working young man and is capable of filling a higher post than the one he now holds should the Government be pleased to relax the examination rules, so as to permit him being promoted in the establishment of this Court up to a salary of Rs. 40-0-0 per mensem.

(Signed) FRED. B. LOVERY,
Registrar,
Madras Court of Small Causes.

COURT OF SMALL CAUSES,
MADRAS, 29th January 1896.

I have known bearer P. RAJAGOPAL NAIDU for the last 15 years. He understands the procedure of the Court in its various departments. He now holds the post of an Examiner, (Copyist Department) and draws a salary of Rs. 17 per mensem. Being an unpassed candidate, he is debarred from further promotion.

Considering therefore the vast experience he has had of this Court, I would respectfully recommend to their Honors the Chief Judge and Judges to submit his Petition to Government, with their favorable remarks, to exempt him from passing the necessary examinations, so as to enable him to draw a higher salary, at least to the extent of Rupees 40.

I do not recommend him for a general exemption, but for one restricted to this Court alone.

(Signed) K. VADANTHA MOODELLY,
Head Clerk.

I have known P. RAJAGOPAL NAIDU for very many years. I have always heard him well spoken of and from all that I have seen of him myself I have reason to believe that he has been and is an efficient and hard working employee of the Small Cause Court. He is certainly deserving of promotion.

(Signed) ROBERT F. GRANT,
Barrister-at-Law.

MADRAS, 22nd January 1896.

MADRAS, 23rd January 1896.

I have known P. RAJAGOPAL NAIDU, Examiner in the Copyist Department of the Madras Court of Small Causes for many years and should like very much to see him get promotion.

P. RAJAGOPAL NAIDU has also in addition to his duties as Examiner at times acted as Judges' Clerk and when he has so acted I have noticed that he has been always well up to his work.

P. RAJAGOPAL NAIDU is an intelligent man and well behaved and has always been very attentive and obliging.

JAMES SHORT,
Solicitor.

118, ARMENIAN STREET,
MADRAS, 20th January 1896.

I have very great pleasure in certifying to ability and intelligence of P. RAJAGOPAL NAIDU, Examiner of the Copyist Department of the Madras Small Cause Court, whom I have known for the past 15 or 16 years. He has also acted as Judges' and Registrar's Clerk and has discharged the duties which devolved upon him with credit to himself and to the entire satisfaction of the suitors and the profession. He is thoroughly conversant with the practice and procedure of the Court and I hope the bar to his receiving a higher salary than he has been doing will soon be removed.

(Signed) JAMES SHORT,
Solicitor.

MADRAS, 23rd January 1896.

I have known Mr. P. RAJAGOPAL NAIDU for the last 18 years or so and I have much pleasure in giving him this testimonial. He is certainly deserving of promotion and I sincerely hope that the present existing bar will be soon removed and that he will be taken on to the permanent establishment of the Court.

He has always shown himself honest and most efficient in his duties and has given satisfaction to both suitors and the profession and has won the esteem of all who have had any dealings with him.

(Signed) L. GORDON,
Solicitor.

To

HIS EXCELLENCY

THE GOVERNOR-IN-COUNCIL,

FORT ST. GEORGE,

MADRAS.

*The humble petition of P. RAJAGOPAUL
NAIDU, Clerk in the Court of Small Causes,
Madras.*

MOST RESPECTFULLY SHEWETH,

1. That your humble petitioner is the Examiner in the Copyists' Department in the Court of Small Causes, Madras, getting Rs. 17 per mensem. He is an unpassed man and having entered Government Service before the 1st July 1887, his promotion is debarred by G. O. No. 482, Educational, dated 28th July 1886.

2. That your petitioner having lost his father while very young, had to begin life early and this necessitated his giving up his studies before he could pass any of the public examinations which are recognized by Government as service tests.

3. That your petitioner nevertheless possesses sufficient knowledge of English to satisfactorily perform the duties of a clerk. That he has on divers occasions been deputed to act as a Bench Clerk in the Court of Small Causes, your petitioner ventures to believe, is sufficient evidence that his superiors have confidence in him and that his competence for the responsible post of a Bench Clerk is recognized by them. Here your petitioner begs to invite Your Excellency's kind attention to the testimonials granted to him by the Judges of the Court.

4. That, in spite of his abilities and devotion to his work which have won for him the good opinion of his superiors, he should be prevented from getting his due by a mere technical objection is very disappointing to Your Excellency's petitioner; he therefore earnestly requests that Your Excellency will be graciously pleased to reconsider the order passed in his case in April last and relax the Examination Rules so as to enable your petitioner to get promotion in the Court of Small Causes up to a limit of Rs. 50 per mensem at least.

5. And that your petitioner begs to submit that the concession he asks for is not an unusual one; it has been granted in the case of Mahipathi Rao of the P. W. D. and many others, not to say the total exemption from the Examination Rules granted in G. O. No. 250, Educational, dated 26th April 1883, to P. Venkoba Row Nazir of the Court of Small Causes, on Rs. 70 per mensem, who was entertained in the Court only a few months before your petitioner.

For which act of kindness, Your Excellency's humble petitioner shall be grateful, and as in duty bound, ever pray.

P. Rajagopal Naidu

Examiner of the Copyists' Department of the Court of Small Causes, Madras.
