Proceedings, No. 253, 10th July 1896.

Passing orders on letter from the Collector of Cuddapah stating that the appointment of certain unpassed men whose further exemption from the Examination rules was disapproved by Government, may be sanctioned by the Collector, if their re-employment be found necessary, after an interval and in other arrangements of a purely temporary nature.

Note.

The above is undoubt right, but Govt's policy in these & similar cases is based on very little of general rule or principle. It exempts temporarily for a number of short periods & then comes down with a refusal to exempt any more. But goes the gamut in question, & in comes another with whom the same process is gone through. The first gamut means while gets another temporary post & more shortly vacancies & so it goes on. The one good result of this policy is that an unpassed man has a poor time & no claim to pension, & officers getting tired of continual changes try hard to get passed men. So gradually good is being done.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE (LAND REVENUE).

READ—the following letter from A. C. TATE, Esq., Collector of Cuddapah, to the Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue, dated 17th June 1896, Ref. on Cur. No. 3022-Rev.:—

I have the honour to submit the following for the orders of the Board:—

Government in its orders Nos. 258, Educational, dated 18th December 1895, communicated with Board's Proceedings, No. 24, Routine, Land Revenue, dated 10th January 1896, and Government Order, No. 60, Educational, dated 10th February, communicated with Board's Proceedings, No. 411, Routine, Land Revenue, dated 13th February 1896, refused to sanction any further extension in regard to the appointment of the unpassed candidates P. G. Gopala Moodelly and B. Venkatanarayana, after 14th December 1895 and 19th February 1896, respectively. Orders were accordingly issued to the Deputy Collector who dispensed with the services of the men.

2. After an interval of one month and fourteen days and two months and fourteen days, respectively, the Tahsildar re-entertained the above unpassed men (P. G. Gopala Moodelly and B. Venkatanarayana) saying that he could get neither passed men nor competent men among unpassed men to fill up the vacancies, and that the men in question were more useful than new men having long acted as gumastahs; and the Deputy Collector, approving of the Tahsildar's action, has sent in an application for exemption on their behalf from 29th April to 28th July and 3rd May to 2nd August 1896.

3. When called on to explain why the men were re-entertained in contravention of the orders of Government, the Deputy Collector states that he does not think that Government intended that these men should never hereafter be re-employed, but that the order of Government only disapproved of their continued employment without break. I do not agree with the Deputy Collector and therefore beg to refer the action of the Deputy Collector for the orders of the Board and Government. If the explanation furnished by him is to be accepted, then it has to be decided what period of interruption would be sufficient to justify the re-entertainment of these individuals. I enclose a copy of the Deputy Collector's letter, Ref. on Cur. No. 1084, dated 4th June 1896.

ENCLOSURE.

From M.R. Ry. C. ADIKESAVULOO NAIDU Garu, General Charge Deputy Collector, Cuddapah Division, to the Collector of Cuddapah, dated Vontimitta, 4th June 1896, Ref. on Cur. No. 1084.

Adverting to your Ref. on Cur. No. 3022-Rev., dated 31st May 1896, I have the honour to state that, as Government declined to grant extension in the case of Gopala Moodelly and Venkatanarayana Rao, their services were dispensed with on 16th March 1896 and 20th February 1896, respectively; but the Tahsildar recommended their entertainment again as even among unpassed candidates, competent men could not be secured, and the two individuals were, by reason of their having long acted as gumastahs, found to be serviceable. It is hardly necessary for me to note that the Cuddapah Taluk office is filled with unpassed men and school boys. There are at present four permanent vacancies and two acting ones, notwithstanding that two permanent appointments have but recently been filled up. The Tahsildar represented to me on several occasions that he was finding it extremely difficult to get through the work with an establishment so ill-manned [please also vide my reports to you in Ref. Nos. 1763, dated 21st March 1896, and No. 423, dated 12th April 1896]. In consideration of these circumstances and of the fact that the disapproval of Government related only to the continued employment of the unpassed men, I approved of their entertainment after an interruption from duty of more than two months in one case and of nearly one month and-a-half in the other. In doing so, I had in view a precisely similar case which occurred last year. There the unpassed candidate acted as taluk gumastah until 14th April 1895 and his further continued employment was debarred by Government. He was, however, re-entertained with effect from the 20th May 1895. His re-entertainment was sanctioned by the late Acting Collector in his Disposal No. 3427-Ver., dated 25th July 1895. I do not think that the Government intended that these men should never hereafter be re-employed and I do not know what period of interruption would suffice to justify the re-entertainment of these individuals. I beg to be favoured with your orders.

2. Your order signifying disapproval of the appointment of the two unpassed men was received by me on the 1st instant. I issued an urgent order to the Tahsildar on that very day to at once relieve them of their duties. As the appointments are at present vacant, and as there are none competent to fill them, I request that you will be so good as to forward any applications from passed candidates that may have been received in your office. As regards the appointment of Gopala Moodelly and Venkatanarayana Rao, up to the date of their relief, I request that you will kindly accord sanction or obtain the orders of Government.

RESOLUTION—No. 253, dated 10th July 1896.

The Board considers that in the Government Orders quoted by the Collector, Government merely declined to grant further exemption from the Examination rules in the case of the individuals referred to, so as to allow of their further entertainment in the Government service in the same vacancy, but did not mean to prohibit their re-employment, if found necessary, after an interval and in other arrangements of a purely temporary nature.

2. The Board is unable to specify the length of such intervals. The matter is one for decision in each case, it being understood that the rules are not stretched in such a way as to encourage unpassed candidates to expect employment in the Government service.
