To

The Secretary, Surgeon-General with the Government of Madras.

Sir,

I beg most respectfully to request that you will be pleased to forward this my application for the kind and favourable consideration of Government.

I am now employed as a copyist in the Surgeon-General's office on a salary of Rs. 15 per mensem. As a vacancy of Rs 20 has now occurred in the office by the death of one of the clerks, I beg to be promoted to it. being the next senior on the list.

I have passed the Middle School examination in the 2nd Class but as you will observe the Government has been pleased on the humble request of my father to express its willingness to exempt me should I be recommended by my Head of Department.

As I am already a member of the Office establishment and as you are aware that I am fit to do the work of a clerk on Rs 20 I beg you will kindly transmit this my application to Government for favourable consideration with a view to my being allowed to be appointed to the present vacancy.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Proceedings of the Madras Government.
