N. 2496 (f.o.) 8/3/96

To Cllr. of S. Canara (Q+O) dtd 14/9/96

To.

His Excellency the Right Honorable the Governor of Madras, In Council.

Humble petition of Mangalore Abdul Khadar, permanent clerk in the Tahildar's office Udipi, now acting as clerk in the Collecting Office, South Canara.

(July) 1896.
Dated 31st Dec.

Most respectfully sheweth,

That petitioner is one of the few Mahama dans in this district who come forward with a view to seek employment in the Superior Service under Her Majesty's benign Government.

2. That it is a well known fact that persons of his community, as a rule, seldom take advantages derived from English education but rather choose to remain in ignorance with the result that there has been no material progress in the status of the Community in general.

Petitioner

confident that intelligence combined with perseverance and industry will not fail to bring its due reward. Although Petitioner is an unpassed candidate, he possesses a fair knowledge of English having studied up to the matriculation class. He has also been on a fair trial of his abilities and capabilities, recommended as deserving of encouragement. The knowledge thus acquired will materially improve by reading the law if he is induced to do it by permitting him to appear for the Special Tests. It is for his own interest, the interest of his community and in that of the public service in which he is employed that he seeks this concession.

9. Petitioner belongs to a respectable family and the copies of testimonials &c herein enclosed will, he trusts, fully satisfy your Excellency as to his conduct and capability.

10. In conclusion Petitioner humbly and respectfully prays that your Excellency on a kind consideration of the foregoing circumstances be graciously pleased to accord permission to Petitioner to appear for the Special Test examinations also.

For which act of kindness and benevolence Petitioner and his family shall ever remain grateful.

Asdoun Khadar

3. Petitioner has not been an exception to the rule. His education was cut short at a very early stage and as a necessary consequence he is left to struggle with the world with but few prospects before him.

4. That petitioner who was labouring under such disadvantages, succeeded, through the kind intervention of the local authorities, in procuring exemption from the examination Rules at the hands of your most gracious Excellency's Government with a view to his admission into Superior Service on Rs 15 and upwards (vide G.O. dated 4th September 1895, No. 732 Educational).

Petitioner and his family fail to find words to express their heart-felt gratitude for this act of wondrous charity on the part of the local officers and the Government.

5. Encouraged by this success, petitioner humbly ventures again to approach your Excellency's Government with a further request that he may be granted a similar exemption permitting him to appear for the Special Text Examinations also.

6. As exemption from the examination Rules ordinarily confers such a privilege, petitioner did not in his former application for exemption specifically include a prayer for such permission also; but the result has been what was not anticipated. The Government order above quoted lays a restriction that the exemption therein accorded does not involve permission to appear for the Special Tests.

7. The prohibition thus imposed would, the petitioner is afraid, confine him to the circle of petty clerks who hold posts carrying a meagre salary of Rs 15 or 20 per mensem and beyond this it is impossible for him to expect under the circumstances.

8. But a man naturally desires for further improvement. Petitioner is confident
