CHIEF SECRETARY
26 AUG 1896
GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

Bangalore
Dated 24th Aug/96.

To
J. H. Price Esq
Chief Secretary to the Govt of Madras.

Respected Sir

With every mark of respect and humble submission I beg to submit the following few lines for your favourable consideration.

I am an Accountant at present in the Comptroller's office Mysore Govt, Bangalore on a salary of Rs. 50/ and I intend to appear for the Præcis-writing Test of the Madras Govt.

It is open only (1) to men who are drawing Rs. 15/ upwards in the British Service
(2) to Upper Secondary men or to Matriculated
(3) or to some persons who have passed some other

In other examination, accepted by Govt.
for the purposes of this Note as equivalent to them (vide Public Service Note dated 28th Jan 1895 & Special Test Exam Rules Published in Fort St. George Gazette dated 12th Feb/95.)

I think I cannot claim admission under rule (1) for I draw Rs 50/- in the Mysore Govt. and not in the British Govt. but I humbly claim admission under rule (3) as I have passed the following examinations which are I think equal or more in difficulty to the Madras Matriculation Exam:-

(1) Madras Middle School Exam in the third class in 1887 (vide Fort St. George Gazette dated 6th March 1888) but failed in the Matriculation Exam in the same year for want of a few marks to make up the total.

(2) Mysore Account Test - Far more difficult (vide Mysore Gazette dated 21st Sep/93. Page 363.) than the Madras Higher Account Test.

(3) Mysore Criminal Exam
in the first class (vide Mysore Gazette dated 4th Oct/94 Page 477) } - Equal in difficulty to the Madras Criminal Higher Grade.

(4) Mysore Rev. Exam in the first class (vide Mysore Gazette dated 13th Feb/96 Page 40) } - Equal in difficulty to the Madras Revenue
Lower Grade.

(5) An Examination in Agriculture in 1890
after a course of training in the Madras College of Agriculture, but he has not obtained Diploma (vide Fort St. George Gazette dated 1st July 1890.)

Examinations in Precise writing and Translation Test do not exist in Mysore for the present, but they have local Exams in other subjects.

Under the circumstances, I humbly beg, that special orders of Govt. may be obtained in accordance with the rules of the Public Service Note as to have passed examinations equal in difficulty to the Madras Matriculation examination and order me to appear for

for the Press-writing Test of the Madras Govt.

For which act of kindness and charity, I shall, as in duty bound, ever pray.

I beg to remain
Respected Sir
Your most obedient humble servant
