C. No. 735

FOR ORDERS.

In G.O. no. 1302 Rev. dated 11th May 1868 it was ruled that Candidates who had passed in the General Revenue Test were exempt from the Salt, Sea Customs and Account Tests. In G.O. no. 2112 Rev. dated 27th Oct. 1879, so much of this rule as related to the Salt & Sea Customs was cancelled and Candidates for employment in the Salt & Sea Customs depts were required to pass in the Salt and Sea Customs tests, even though they had passed in the General Revenue Test.

The P. Ch. Venkateswara Aiyar, who is English Head Accountant in the Collector's Office, Malabar, states that he passed the General Revenue Test before 1879 and that in consequence of the ruling in G.O. no. 2112 Rev. d 27th Oct 79

SUBJECT.

Recommending the exemption of Vallabadaswara
Iyer, English Head Aclt.
Collector's Office, Malabar,
from passing the Sea
Customs Test.

he is now required to pass the Sea Customs Test for employment in the Sea Customs dept.
He requests that, as he is in advanced age and cannot read for examinations, he may be exempted from passing the Sea-
Customs Test.

There seems to be no very good reason for granting the concession sought.

In six years more he will be 55, & have to retire.

Sir

The Treasury Deputy Collector
Malabar.

Respected Sir,

I most respectfully and humbly beg leave to submit for your honor's favorable consideration the following lines, fully trusting to be pardoned for the intrusion.

2 I have passed the tests specified in the margin. In 1876, I passed the Revenue Test general.
The rule then in force was that "persons who have passed in either grade of the Revenue Test (III A or III B) will not be required to pass in the Sea Customs Test, salt test, or the Account test, in order that they may be eligible for the appointment of salt — Superintendent, of Sea Customs superintendent, or Accountant in any office" as the questions for the tests were also from the Sea Customs & salt laws &c.

Venkataswara Aijar has been my manshi for about 5 months. He is an intelligent man, knows English very well and is willing to follow out any plan of work that may be indicated to him, which is a rare quality among manshis.

Sd/ W. H. Glenny
Cachet, Dec. 4, 1867.

Venkataswara Aijar has been my manshi for more than 6 months. I can speak of his industry in the highest terms & his knowledge of English is very good.

Sd/ W. H. Glenny J.C.S.
Cachet, 2.7.88.

3. I have much pleasure in testifying that S. Venkataswara Aijar, the 6th English Accountant has given me satisfaction in the discharge of his duties during the brief period I had charge of the Office. I have tested him & found him to be an useful & deserving public servant & wish ^{him} that success in life to which he is justly entitled. He has applied for the Currency Cashier ship and I think him fitted for it.

Sd/ J. B. Fernandez
J.C.S. 5.8.7.

Venkataswara Aijar is a very good public servant & has a very good knowledge of accounts. He is respectable & quiet & I am confident will prove a useful Officer of Govt in course of time.

J.C.S.

5. Venkataswara Rajar has served under me in the Account Department for nearly 10 years, so that I have had ample opportunities of forming an opinion of him. He is a very intelligent, hardworking man & has done a great deal of arduous and onerous account work to my entire satisfaction. He has had to prepare all the chief & most important accounts at different times & has always acquitted himself well. He has a thorough knowledge of the system of accounts and I hope he will be one day Head Accountant. He is particularly well qualified to be a Taluk sheristadar.

18th Oct 77.

Sd/- P. A. Cole
Dy Collector

Venkataswara Rajar, Head accountant, appears to possess a thorough knowledge of the account system, Circulars &c and I have always found the work in the account department very well turned out. The last report on the Treasury was exceedingly favorable and the H^d accountant acting under the order of a very efficient Treasury Officer is entitled to credit for this creditable state of affairs.

October 12, 1884.

Sd/- C. A. Galtton
Dy Collector

During the time I was in independent charge of the Treasury I found the H^d accountant Venkataswara Rajar to be thoroughly up in his work and very competent.

Endorsement on applications

The applicant has been the Dy accountant in my office ever since I came here. He is quick & intelligent & should think very well qualified for the post of Taluk sheristadar. He acted as Head Accountant during a short vacancy & did very well.

Sd/- J. C. Winslow
24 August 87. Dy Colr.

Venkataswara Rajar has strong claims and with I am confident make a good Taluk sheristadar.

Sd/- S. Ramakrishna Menon
23.6.87. Dy Collector.

Forwarded to the Collector for favorable consideration. The applicant is thorough up in accounts and would make a good sheristadar.

Sd/- B. C. Leggat
Dy Collector
25.4.82.

Forwarded to the Collector for favorable consideration. The applicant, as the Collector is aware has done excellent work since he was appointed H^d accountant & the efficiency of the acct dept is due to his exertions which have been most praiseworthy.

Sd/- B. C. Leggat
5.4.86.

During the short period — six weeks — in which I had charge of the Treasury I found Venkataswara Rajar thoroughly competent as a H^d accountant. He was industrious, conscientious & painstaking & I can recommend him prominently.

Endorsement of the Dy Collector

Mr. V. Rajagopalachariar Esq. B.L. dated 15-9-94 on the application for promotion of S. Sundaramoorthy Aiyar H. Accountant
Madurai District Office dated 12-9-94.

Submitted for favorable Consideration & orders.

2. The applicant was recommended for a sub Magistrate's place when the scheme of stationary Magis was introduced, but he did not get one then.
He was however appointed Buzon Treasures Collector on but had to revert as he was not able to furnish security.

3. As the H. Accountant of a heavy district like this for the last 12 years, he has done good work and deserves encouragement. I beg therefore to recommend strongly that he be given some promotion on the present occasion & if not now at least when a suitable opportunity presents itself. I need not add that one with no prospect of further promotion, however zealous he might be is likely to deteriorate in point of efficiency.

Sd/- V. Rajagopalachariar

Treasury Dy Collector

15-9-94

Submitted for favorable Consideration.

2. I had occasion to give expression to my view regarding the applicant when in 1894 I recommended him for a similar appointment. As the H. Accountant of this Office for the last 13 years, he has done really very good work & deserves to be encouraged.

2 I beg to support the applicant in his prayer that he may be recommended for exemption from passing the Sea Customs test.

3 His case is rather a hard one and it would be well if he could be given unless a suitable opportunity presents itself the best of a sea custom suit on a higher bay than what he now draws
and be thus encouraged
