Most Respectfully Sheweth,

In humbly laying the following Circumstances before Your Honor, the Petitioner begs that you will be good enough to accord them your generous Consideration and recommend him to Government for exemption from the Revenue Test Lower Grade.

2. The Petitioner is the Head Clerk of the Chirakkal Taluk and though aged 49 years has put in a total Service of 30 years, of which 23 years belong to Superior Service.

3. The Petitioner has passed the Late General Test in English and Malayalam and the Criminal Lower Grade of the Special Test.

4. The Petitioner appeared for the Revenue Test, Lower Grade more than once even though his official duties fully absorbed his time and left but little to devote to his Study. The result was though he was not declared a Successful Candidate, he managed through dint of perseverance to secure a pass successively in all the subjects prescribed for the Test as a kind reference to the failure list in the Fort St George Gazette noted in the margin will testify. Thus Your Honor will perceive that in 1892 as Petitioner passed in the Account Code and Revenue Regulations, in 1894 in Revenue Regulation and the Circular Orders of the Board of Revenue and in 1895 in the Circular orders and Taluk and Village manual. Practically therefore Petitioner has proved his intimate familiarity with the subjects prescribed for the Revenue Test though technically he has not stamped it by passing in all the subjects at one and the same time. Nevertheless the object aimed at by the Test has, Petitioner submits, been attained. The principle on which Petitioner bases his application has, Petitioner need hardly state, recently formed the subject of discussion by the Bombay University.

5. The Petitioner is not the case of one who has failed to utilize his opportunities. He has striven hard to qualify and has all but qualified for preferment. And the enforcement of the Rule prohibiting persons who have passed the old General Test, from appearing for the Revenue Test in future years will operate as a permanent bar to Petitioner's advancement in the service unless he is exempted from the Revenue Test. If exempted he stands the chance of securing the place of a Revenue Inspector on the occurrence of a vacancy.

6. The Petitioner has once acted as the Sheristadar of the Chittoor Taluk and as Head Accountant on full pay, and but for the

This has been put in circulation & five years have given to persons like the petitioner (an inferior) drawback of not passing the Revenue Test would probably have been confirmed as Head Accountant. Petitioner is now emboldened to make this application for exemption under the Board's Proceedings No 191 dated the 2nd June 1896.

7. The Petitioner therefore begs that Your Honor will be kindly pleased to favorably consider his case ^{and} recommend him to be exempted from the Revenue Test, Lower Grade.

For which act of kindness, the Petitioner shall as in duty bound ever pray.

Head Clerk.

Chirakkal Taluk Office,
Gannanore 7th August 1896,

To,

The Sub. Collector
of Malabar
Telli Chery.

Sir,

In Submitting herewith for your favorable consideration, an application from M. Keli, Head Gunastan of this Office, praying for exemption from passing the Revenue Test, Lower Grade, I beg to state that the applicant is very hardworking, persevering and quite willing to work and therefore deserves encouragement. During my past experience of nearly a year and a half I have had no occasion to find fault with him in any way. Having much to do in the Treasury Department to which he is attached, he could hardly expect time to study the subjects prescribed for the examination. He has more than once appeared for the examination but failed and as he is now 49 years of age any further attempt would

I think be of little avail. He is further precluded from appearing for the examination from next year - I have confidently recommend him for the post of Revenue Inspector or even to Taluk Head Accountant as he is in my esti-mation quite up to the mark - I therefore beg to strongly recom-mend that his prayer may be granted.

I beg to remain,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant
Chowmilla
Tahaldar

Forwarded.
