OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER
FOR GOVERNMENT EXAMINATIONS,
Madras, 25th August 1896.

From

THE HON'BLE MR. D. DUNCAN, M.A., D.Sc., LL.D., COMMISSIONER FOR GOVERNMENT EXAMINATIONS,
Madras,

To

THE HON'BLE THE CHIEF SECRETARY
TO GOVERNMENT,
Fort St. George.

SIR,

At the instance of the Accountant-General, a copy of whose letter on the subject is enclosed, I have the honor to submit for the orders of Government, with reference to article 75 of the Civil Account Code, the question whether charges on account of remuneration to superintendents who are not Government servants, should be treated as ordinary contingent charges or as special charges requiring the sanction of Government.

2. I beg to observe, in this connection, that the practice all these years has been for the Commissioner himself to fix and finally pass for payment, without reference to Government, all remuneration on account of superintendence. At the request of the Commissioner, Chief Superintendents are appointed appointed, in the case of several of the examinations conducted by this office, by the collectors of the respective districts, about a month or so previous to the date of examination.

These Chief Superintendents are, as a rule, Government servants and are allowed to appoint their own assistants, the number of whom has to be determined by the number of examinees and the nature of the accommodation afforded by the buildings in which the examinations are held. No remuneration is granted to any Chief or

Assistant Superintendent who is a Government servant, while, as regards Superintendents who are not employed in the service of Government, the rates of remuneration vary according to circumstances, according to the importance of the examination superintended and other considerations, subject, however, to a maximum of Rs 10 in the case of Chief Superintendents and of Rs 3 in the case of Assistant Superintendents. The remuneration that has to be paid, calculated as above, is generally included in the contingent bills returned countersigned by my Secretary after the items of expenditure have been checked, to the various Chief Superintendents, and, in this way, has always formed a part of the contingent charges. This practice has given rise to no inconvenience and no objection has been raised during all these years that it has been followed. Government has delegated to the Commissioner the power of sanctioning payment of stipends of of Rs 100 and less to Chairmen and members of Primary Examination boards; and, if the maximum amount of remuneration allowed to any Superintendent for each day he superintends never exceeds Rupees Ten, I do not see that there is any necessity for withdrawing from the Commissioner the comparatively insignificant power that he has all along exercised of fixing and passing remuneration for superintendence in connection with the examinations under his control.

3. The Accountant-General has pointed out, with reference to the question now submitted for decision, that the case of Government servants who may be appointed Superintendents is also governed by Article 89 (a) of the Civil Service Regulations. I beg, therefore, to request that, in passing orders on this letter, Government will be pleased to decide also the question of allowing remuneration to Government servants for services rendered by them as Chief or Assistant Superintendents in connection with any of examinations conducted by the Commissioner.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Your most Obedient Servant,
D. G. G. G.
Commissioner.

Remuneration for Superintending

Ed DEPARTMENT

C. No. 1016 of 96

FOR ORDERS.

There are two questions
for orders:—

1st is, whether ^{with reference to Art. 75 Gov. Act. Code} the remuneration paid to persons superintending Govt examinations ^{is a} charge of a special character which requires the sanction of Govt or whether it may be treated as ordinary contingent expenditure. It does not appear to be an ordinary contingent charge but the Commr has been in the habit of passing it without and he may now be specially ^{if it is submitted} authorized to pass it. There can ^{possibly} be no objection to the delegation of such a power.

2nd is, whether Govt servants who are called upon to superintend these examinations are entitled to
