Note.

Hitherto private candidates were admitted to this examination on the sanction of Govt. accorded in the Public Dept and no applications seems to have ever been refused. Such candidates as have been specially permitted have been admitted on payment of a fee of Rs 15, which is the fee for a minor examination conducted by the Bd of Examiners.

These candidates are generally Supervisors of, or teachers in, Schools for native girls, who are, it is understood, compelled by the S.P.O. to qualify in a vernacular.

The addition of such a rule as the one now proposed will, ^{therefore} meet a long felt want and will prevent much unnecessary correspondence. It will be noted that the Third class Vernacular Test also is now open to private persons on payment of a fee of Rs 15. ^{vide amended}
