To

HIS EXCELLENCY THE RIGHT HON'BLE

THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL,

Fort Saint George,

MADRAS.

The HUMBLE PETITION of WAJID AHMED
MAHKERY, residing at No. 28, Mow-bray's Road, Royapettah, Madras.

RESPECTFULLY SHEWETH THAT:—

Your Excellency's petitioner is the son of Asaad Hussain Khan, a respectable Mohamedan gentleman and a Carnatic Stipendiary, but now deceased, and that petitioner's father during his life-time was on receipt of a monthly stipend of Rs. 27, and that the deceased has left a widow and children surviving him.

2. Your petitioner's mother is now in receipt of a pension of Rs. 13-8 being a moiety of his late father's pension, and that the scanty pittance is quite inadequate for the maintenance of petitioner's widowed mother and the minor children of his late father.

3. Your petitioner is a young man, hailing from a family of undoubted respectability, and whose popularity has not died out, but still extant in the annals of the history of the Carnatic. The worthy family to which the petitioner belongs is in itself a guarantee that petitioner's cause is one which deserves support at the hands of your Excellency's Government.

4. Your petitioner is desirous to detail his descent for your Excellency's information, that his ancestors were noblemen connected with the royalty, and that petitioner is a great grandson of Nabob Saadutullah Khan, and a lineal descendant of Nawab Muklis Ali Khan, the cousin of Nawab Chunda Sahib, and a grand nephew of Padshah Begam Sahiba, daughter of the Jaghirdar of Culva, and the wife of Nawab Azeem-ud-dowlah, and a near relation to Ramut Unissah Begam Sahiba and Padshah Begam Sahiba, the first ladies of Nawab Amirulomrah and Wallajah respectively.

5. Your petitioner had during his father's life-time been educated in an English High School, and while there and still young in years had passed the Government Middle School Examination.*

6. Your petitioner while in school gave ample and satisfactory proofs of industry and perseverance, as well as petitioner's own capabilities.

* Vide Fort St. George Gazette Supplement of 15th July 1890, page 45.

the notice of the then supervising educational authorities of the school, and that he had been promoted to the Matriculation class, and petitioner then indulged the high hopes of drinking copiously at the fountain of the higher education, but to the great grief, mortification and misfortune of petitioner, the axe had been laid at the root of petitioner's brightest hopes by a concatenation of circumstances uncontrollable and unforeseen, and supervened by petitioner's father's inability to pay for petitioner's education any longer, drove petitioner to the extreme means of abandoning his books and the idea he had then most fondly cherished, and petitioner had ever since been unable to resume his task, and as petitioner's father is since dead his helplessness is now quadrupled, and petitioner's only succour is to look up to your Excellency's benign Government for relief.

7. Your petitioner's father, according to the Eastern custom, gave petitioner the blessings of an oriental culture on a sound and liberal basis in the Persian and Hindustani languages under the direction of experienced and able tutors, and petitioner had thus been afforded the amplest opportunities and the widest scope of accomplishing himself in the usual manner of the children of the Mohamedan gentry, who value Persian and Hindustani education as a heirloom and common hereditary equipment which, in after-life, forms the criterion to define a refined and well-bred man.

8. Your petitioner having gone into the detailed facts of his pitiable case now ventures to ask at the hands of your Excellency's paternal Government to be pleased to exempt him from the operation of the Upper Secondary Examination to enable him to seek an employment in the Public Service.

9. As your petitioner's father is now removed by death from the family circle to which he had been long endeared, and as petitioner's father's loss is most keenly felt, and as the surviving members of his family are struggling the best way they could to strike out a course for the earning of their livelihood, and hence petitioner has been constrained to make this petition.

10. Your Excellency's petitioner implores that the indulgence prayed for be accorded him as it will be the means of petitioner endeavouring to secure in the near future a suitable employment and thus be able to maintain himself and the other surviving members of his late father's family in a becoming manner, and lastly acquit himself honorably of the filial duty of looking after an aged surviving parent.

11. Your petitioner for further information begs to refer to the Paymaster of the Carnatic Stipends.

And for this act of kindness petitioner will EVER PRAY.

OPINION OF THE PRESS.

OPINION OF THE PRESS.

The "Madras Standard".—Mr. Mohamed Saeed Sahib Mehkary, a Mohamedan gentleman of good attainments and a linguist of no mean order, is about to proceed to some of the Native States in search of Employment, and there is no reason why he should not succeed. He is a great grandson of Nawab Saadutullah Khan, of the Carnatic, and is well spoken of.—22nd May, 1893.

The "Madras Mail".—Mohamed Saeed Sahib Mehkary, a gentleman of the Carnatic family, desires to proceed to some Native States with the object of procuring Employment suited to his rank and education. He is a great grandson of Nawab Saadutullah Khan of the Carnatic and lineally descended from Nawab Mucklis Ali Khan the 'famous' cousin of Nawab Chunda Sahib. This gentleman is well versed in five languages, viz., English, Persian, Arabic, Hindustani and Tamil. He also has high testimonials of character, and should undoubtedly succeed in his attempt.—23rd May, 1893.

Extract from a letter appeared in the "Muhammadan" of the 29th May 1893.

Mr. Mohamed Saeed Sahib Mehkary, a member of the Carnatic family, is a great grandson of Nawab Saadutullah Khan former Sovereign of the Carnatic. He is lineally descended from Nawab Mucklis Ali Khan, the 'famous' cousin of the Nawab Chunda Sahib. He is a grand nephew of Nawab Padsha Begum Sahiba, daughter of Jagirdar of Culva and wife of Nawab Azim-ud-Dowla of the Carnatic fame. He is also a near relation to Rahat-un-Nissa Begum Sahiba and Padsha Begum Sahiba, the first ladies of Nawab Amir-ul-Umra and Wallajah respectively.

This gentleman proceeds very shortly to the adjacent Native States to better himself and exchange toil for ease; and it is an indisputable fact that the latter quality reigns predominant in the Carnatic family.

The above gentleman is an accomplished Scholar having mastered 5 languages, viz., Arabic, Persian, Hindustani, English and Tamil.

I wish Mr. Mohamed Saeed Sahib Mehkary a happy and prosperous.—Career.

Extracts from letters & testimonies

Col. E. S. Ludlow, Inspector-General of Police, H. H. The Nizam's Government, writing to Mr. Macantire, Deputy Commissioner of Police at Bangalore, dated 12th July 1886, says:—

Mr. Mohamed Saeed Sahib a member of the Carnatic family is anxious to find employment.

A few minutes conversation with him will give you a better insight into his qualifications for Government employment.

Mr. A. Ramachunder Rao, Deputy Collector, writing to Mr. A. Lea Hair, District Traffic Superintendent, S. I. Railway, says:—

I have much pleasure in introducing to you the bearer Mr. Mohamed Saeed Sahib Mehkary, a respectable Mohamedan gentleman and a descendant of the Carnatic family.

Mr. Mohamed Saeed Sahib Mehkary bears a high character, has a fair knowledge of English and Tamil.

His testimonials show that he possesses qualifications of a high order. His hand-writing too is decidedly good.

To

MOHAMED SAEED SAHIB MEHKARY,

DEAR SIR,

I have no doubt you possess sufficient capacity for official work.

You would in all probability rise in the public service.

I wish you every success in life, and I should, if I had any opportunity be glad to help you to it.

December 20th, 1892.

With best wishes,

Yours faithfully,

CHIEF SECRETARY
21. OCT. 1896
GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

To

His Excellency The Right Honorable

The Governor in Council

Fort Saint George,

MADRAS.

THE humble petition of Mohammed Saeed Mehkary the grandson of Her Highness Nawab Padshah Begum Sahiba consort of Nawab Azeemud Dowlah Bahadur the ruler of the Carnatic, residing at Westcott Road Royapettah, Madras,

MOST RESPECTFULLY SHEWETH,

That Your Excellency's humble petitioner is the son of late Mohammed Ausuhk Hussain Sahib, who during his life time drew a pension of Rupees 27. After his demise a moiety of it was granted to Your petitioner's mother who owing to her own pecuniary embarrassment commuted the same.

2. That Your Excellency's petitioner did not however, with all the disadvantages lose the opportunity of studying English. But to his misfortune, and owing to the event alluded above, Your Excellency's petitioner has not passed the necessary examination, to qualify himself for a post in the public service. Your Excellency's petitioner most respectfully craves that Your Excellency will be graciously pleased to take his pitiable case into kind and generous consideration and exempt him from the operation of the Upper Secodary Examination so that he may qualify himself for the Special Test Examinations and enter the Public Service.

3. That Your Excellency's petitioner further begs to state that he is the great grandson of Nawab Saadatullah Khan former Sovereign of the Carnatic, and is lineally descended from Nawab Muklis Ali Khan "the famous" Commander-in-chief of Tippu Sultan of Historic fame. He is a grand nephew of Nawab Padshah Begum Sahiba, daughter of the Jagirdar of Culva and wife of Nawab Azeemud Dowlah of Carnatic reputation. He is also a near relation of Rahatun-nissa Begum Sahiba and Padshah Begum Sahiba the first ladies of Nawab Amirul Umrah and Wallajah respectively.

Your Excellency's petitioner begs to state that these facts can be verified by the Pay Master Carnatic Stipends.

4. Your Excellency's petitioner, as it will be seen from the preceding paragraph is descended from the nobility of Southern India; and as the paternal Government evinces an interest in promoting the welfare and status of Muhammadans of noble descent, Your Excellency's petitioner humbly hopes that his pitiable case may be similarly dealt with as others of his community and descent have hitherto been. In this connection Your petitioner begs respectfully to lay before Your Excellency the fact that the Secretary of State in one of his Despatches on the question of Simultaneous Examination expressed a wish that the sons of once ruling families should be granted a concession of entering the higher services of Government without being required to pass the necessary Examinations qualifying for such posts.

5. Your Excellency's petitioner begs to submit a printed copy of his testimonials &c., a perusal of which would amply testify to his character, and qualifications for the public service.

For this act of kindness and benevolence the petitioner shall ever pray.

Mohamed Said.

Westcott Road
Royapettah

22nd October 1896.

Most Respected Sir,

I beg most respectfully to state that the enclosed is a copy of the petition submitted to H.E. the Governor, which I beg to forward for your honor's kind perusal: And in doing so, I beg to crave that your honor will be graciously pleased to extend the hands of patronage, and mercy towards me, and represent my pitiable case to H.E. for his favorable consideration, and get the concession prayed for. Accompanying is a copy of testimonials &c., which I beg to send by book-post.

I should in this connection, bring to your honor's kind notice that I am a brother of Mohamed Sufther Skursain Sahib Deputy Collector of Kurnool District -

With due respects -

I beg to remain

most honored and respected

Sir,

Your honor's most obedient servant.

Mohamed Saïd.

FOR ORDERS.

Petitions for exemption from depend-have on several recent cases been sent to the Paymaster Carnatic stipendiaries for report as to whether the pet^{rs} were deserving of encouragement.

The present two pet^{rs} seem clearly to be deserving of very little. The pet^r in cant. No. 1254 has only passed the middle school in the 3rd class & the other youth doesn't seem to have passed any kind of examⁿ. whatever.

It is submitted that it is one thing to exempt a youth who has done his best to pass Upper Secondary anything in the examⁿ. was to be fit for Govt. service

It may be that exemption
would not lead to appointments in the latter case, but if so exemption is to be a farce.

It is submitted that these two pet^{rs} may be told that they have not shown themselves deserving of encouragement by passing men the lower grades of examⁿ & cannot therefore be exempted.

I would simply decline to exempt them. The
