SUBJECT.

I think the concession may be granted in this case 28/11/96

In Orders
There does not, it is submitted, appear to be any special reason why this concession should be granted. Revenue and Criminal higher an only wanted by candidates for D. Collectorate, & not for any office in the Police Dept - 11/2/96

No doubt a Dy. Collectorate is what he is thinking of. Graduates are no doubt preferable as a general rule but we have many good ones who are not. Considering that we have so few Mahomeds & that this man is of a good family I should be inclined to admit him to the exams as a special case. Higher Grade - It doesn't follow he will get anything if he passes. 30/10/96.

From A which is a warrant from Sir Eyre Coote can be traced Abrar Khan's connection with the troublous and critical period that preceeded the British ascendancy in the south. He was the General who distinguished himself in the memorable wars with the French and Chanda Sahib alongside of the British Forces on behalf of Mahomed Ali (Wallaja), their ally and his relative and master. He fought the battles of Devanampatnam, Chilambaram, Ginjee, Villupuram and Elanur, gaining victories over the armies of Chanda Sahib and the French. In the first battle at Devanampatnam he routed Dupleix and in the second Monsiur Garjam the French Commander was captured (pages 125, 250, 177, 195, 179, and 368, of the book called 'Thusaka Walajahee'—which is a history of Walaja and the Carnatic wars). He with Lord Clive advanced to the Fort of Trichinopoly and was the leading spirit in raising that siege, which had put as a note the flag of Chanda Sahib and his French allies and planted firmly the British power. When Clive was closely besieged in the temple of Samayvaram, he made a sally upon the French army and rescued Clive (pp. 235-237). He advanced with Lord Clive to Valkondapoor and defeated the French several of them including Monsiur D' Autiel being made prisoners (pp. 237). He made a sally upon the French army along with General Lawrence and gained the battle of Bangaraconda near Trichinopoly (pp. 272—274). He distinguished himself in the battle of Chenapatnam fighting along with General Lawrence in which Count De Estain was taken prisoner, (pp. 301—313), and of Saint Thomas Mount in which Count De Lally was put to flight (pp. 326). He fought along with Colonel Coote at the battles of Wandiwash, in which Bussy was captured and Zulfikarjung killed (pp. 346), of Chandragiri (pp. 341), and of Karanguly and took the Forts of Pondicherry and Karikal [pp. 348]. In short this officer throughout the Carnatic war distinguished himself for conspicuous gallantry, unflinching loyalty, tact and judgment.

To

His Excellency the Right Honorable,
SIR ARTHUR ELIBANK HAVELOCK,
G. C. M. G.
GOVERNOR OF MADRAS.

Through

THE DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT OF POLICE, COIMBATORE.

The humble Memorial of Abdul Karim Khan
Saib, Inspector of Police, Palladan Division, Coimbatore District.

RESPECTFULLY SHOWETH,

1. Your Excellency's humble Petitioner passed the Matriculation Examination in 1890, Precis Writing Higher Grade, Criminal Lower and Translation Lower Grades in 1892, 93 & 94 respectively and joined the Police Department as an Inspector in May 1894. He was to have appeared for the First in Arts Examination in 1892 but was prevented from doing so owing to certain calamities in his family. In 1895 he applied for Criminal Higher Grade but unfortunately for him, he fell ill at the time of the Examination (which, his Superintendent is aware of) and thus lost the last chance for appearing for the Higher Grade.

2. According to the recent notification of 1896 (published at page 161 of the Fort St. George Gazette) Petitioner being a Matriculate is debarred from appearing for the Criminal and Revenue Higher Grades from 1896.

3. Your Excellency's humble Petitioner begs to state that he comes of an ancient and historic family being the great grandson of Mahomed Abrar Khan Bahadur, Jahghirdar of Ambur and Mustajir of Madura (vide Enclosures A and B). He is most anxious to pass the Higher Grades and thus qualify himself for higher situations open to natives. As may be seen from para I above, he had just time to pass the Special Tests since discontinuing his studies in 1891. He most respectfully begs therefore that Your Excellency will be graciously pleased in consideration of his lineage and the circumstances which led to the discontinuing of his studies to allow him to realize the object of his ambition, by permitting him to appear for the Criminal and Revenue Tests Higher Grades.

For this Act of charity your Petitioner shall ever pray,

Abdul Karim Khan
