DISTRICT & SESSIONS COURT, BELLARY.
Regd 2661
20 OCT. 96

To

The Chief Secretary
to Government
Fort St. George.
Madras.

The humble petition of Padaky Bhemma Row, 6th Clerk, District Munsif's Court of Bellary in the Bellary District,

Most respectfully showeth as follows.

The petitioner was entertained in the public service as a Clerk on 10 Rs in the District Munsif's Court Bellary on 25th August 1879 and was promoted to 15 Rs on 1st January 1881, and since then he has been getting only 15 Rs as the 6th Clerk of the above Court.

At the time of entertainment the petitioner was a student in the preparatory matriculation class and owing to domestic troubles he had to accept the appointment of a clerk's place on 10 Rs expecting that he might study and pass the necessary examinations while in the service to qualify himself for promotion. But owing to the petitioner's misfortune the work of the Court was so heavy that he was able to spare no time for his studies and consequently he was not able to pass any examination under the then existing examination rules. At the time of the petitioner's entertainment of the Public Service he was entitled for promotion up to 25 Rs,

(without

District [illegible] self.

(without passing any examination) and he would have been promoted long ago had there been a vacancy of 17½ or 20 Rs before the current examination rules came into force.

Even after the publication of the Public Service notification in the Fort St. George Gazett dated the 5th February 1895, the petitioner heard that some of the clerks of Sub Court of Salem got promotions under note I of the above notification though they were unpassed candidates.

Under the revised Public Service notification published at page 153 of the Fort St. George Gazett it appears that he shall have no right to get any further promotion. If so the petitioner's position will be hard. For a hard working Servant like the petitioner to hear that he cannot get even a small promotion after rendering 17 years service in the department is most disheartening and unjust.

The petitioner therefore most respectfully requests to be exempted from passing the necessary examinations so that he may be eligible for promotion in this department up to 20 Rs, having in view his honest and useful service in the above said Court for the last 17 years.

To show that the petitioner worked to the entire satisfaction of the Judicial Officers presided.

presided over the said Court from time to time he begs to enclose copies of testimonials granted to him by them.

For this act of kindness the petitioner ever ful greateful.

Padaky Bheema Row

6th Clerk.

CURRENT NO. 1303

From,

J. M. Horsfall Esquire,
Ag: District Judge, Bellary.

To,

The Chief Secretary
to Government, Madras.

Sir,

In forwarding a petition from P. Bhima Rao, 6th clerk, District Munsif Court, Bellary, for exemption from test for promotion up to a post on Rs 20, I have the honor to state that I support his application. My reason lies partly in his good character and good service but chiefly in the great backwardness in education of this District, which unless exemptions of this kind are granted in picked cases, would result in undue weight being given to mere educational tests and too little weight being given to good and long service.

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your most obedient servt

Trustham

Ag: District Judge
