May it please your Excellency, I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th inst. in relation to the memorial of Netheti Narasimhamurti, acting clerk, Ganjam Collector's Office, respectfully sheweth

1. That the memorialist appeared for the Matriculation Examination held in December 1890 but unfortunately could not secure a pass in it. He, however, passed the Middle School Examination held in December 1890 in the First class.

2. That as Middle School First-class candidates were then fully eligible for permanent appointments in superior service and were largely wanted for public appointments in this district he entered the public service and served as a clerk in Pothampet Tahildari Office, Head quarters Deputy Collector's Office Chattrapur. Thinking that he could secure more easily on or before the 31st December 1893 in the Civil line a sub-probationary appointment which

3. That as Middle School First-class candidates were then fully eligible for permanent appointments in superior service and were largely wanted for public appointments in this district he entered the public service and served as a clerk in Pothampet Tahildari Office, Head quarters Deputy Collector's Office Chattrapur. Thinking that he could secure more easily on or before the 31st December 1893 in the Civil line a sub-probationary appointment which would eventually be confirmed as required by the then Public Service Notification he entered the Civil Department in 1893 and secured a subproblem Rs 15 appointment in a permanent arrangement in the District Court, Ganjam. Though he was at first given the least subproblem appointment in the permanent arrangement by the District Judge and though he satisfied his superiors in his work was not so fortunate as to be confirmed in it as the District Judge gave the same to an outsider, a matriculate. So he had to vacate his post on 1st July 1894, the date up to which the concession was extended by a recent revised Notification.

4. That he joined the Ganjam Collector's Office in August 1894 and since then he has been discharging the duties of Emigration Clerk though he had changed in his appointment without breaks, to the best of his ability and to the satisfaction of his superiors. His total service in these several Offices including more than 2 years' service in Ganjam Collector's Office is nearly 7 years.

5. That his brother clerks who had subproblem appointments on or before the 1st July 1894 secured permanent footing in the senior service. As to himself he has become an unpassed candidate and has been therefore appointed appointed as an Estate Clerk in Rs 15 to save inconvenience to him in regard to the receipt of pay, for, if he continued in the imperial service his pay could not be passed after the first three months of the service without the sanction of the Government.

6. That he tried a second chance for the Matriculation Examination in 1891 and a third, last year but could not get through it. It is very difficult for him to secure a pass in it unless he studies regularly in a school. He is a very poor man with a very large family and with no means. His pecuniary circumstances will not permit him to go back to school to matriculate himself.

7. That under these circumstances your Excellency's memorialist humbly prays that your Excellency may be pleased, as a special case, to admit him into the superior service.

For which act of benevolence and charity he will ever feel grateful.

The Chief Secretary to Government, Educational Department,
Madras.

Sir,

In forwarding herewith a memorial presented by Netheti Narasimhamurti, an Estate clerk in this Office, I have the honor to state that though notices inviting passed candidates have been issued in successive issues of the Gazettes of the three Northern districts and in three newspapers, several acting and subprotem clerks' posts of Rs 15 in the district have had to be filled in by unpassed candidates and two or three permanent vacancies have not been permanently filled up for want of passed candidates. The memorialist passed the Middle School Examination in the first class, writes a good hand and is
