SUBJECT.

Liveries.

FOR ORDERS.

The inferior Servants of the Museum are now supplied with one red turban & one khaki coat with brass buttons. The Supt. now proposes to supply them with two long drill coats & six brass buttons, the latter to be supplied once in three years. The costs of the two liveries are the same. These men, if clad in white, will appear neat & tidy but the want of a uniform head dress will interfere with their appearance.

The Supt. can insist on his men wearing a uniform head dress. Turbans are disallowed except to Sect. S. & R. men (G.O. 3/10/96 no. 1095 Pub.)

Orders are solicited.

In G.O. No 461 Fin. Dtd 1st May 96, 6 gallery attendants, 1 peon & 1 door-keeper for the Museum, new building and 2 peons for the Commemorative Public Library were sanctioned.

The Supdt. proposes that these men also should be supplied with liveries. This proposal may be approved!

It will be seen that Supdt. omits from the list, one office peon and four out door watchmen, who are now supplied with liveries. There is only one door keeper in the museum establishment & this may be pointed out to the Supdt. Perhaps the office peon is included under the head door-keeper in the list now submitted.
