*As the rules stand, Major

Offg. ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

To

THE Chief Secretary to Government,

Educational Department.

SIR,

With reference to para. 3 of Government Order
 No. 607 Educational, dated the 1st of October 1896 enquiring what additional allowance can be granted to Major Love for carrying on the duties of the Professor of Engineering in addition to his own duties as Principal, Engineering College, I have the honour to state that under Article 186 Civil Service Regulations, Major Love is not entitled to any additional allowance as the two appoint-ments are in the same Establishment and as the pay of the Professor of Engineering (Rs. 500-50-700) is not more than that of his own substantive office.

Re 1240-14-a.

I take this opportunity to point out that the sanction of the Secretary of State is necessary to the grant to Mr. Keeling, Acting Professor of Engineering of salary and allowances in excess of the pay sanctioned for the appointment.

But see crd

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Capt. Ellis returns about 20 December and Mr. Keeling will be able to take up the appointment in the College immediately after the Xmas holidays.

Major Love informs me that as Mr. Keeling cannot join before middle of this month his services will be of no use to the College till January as it is the examination time.

Letter to

The Secy. to the G. & I.,

Home Dept (Edn.)

Sir,

I am directed to invite

A.G.
18.11.96

a reference to the correspondence ending with Mr Nathaniel's letter no. 310 dtd. 27 Oct 96 stating that a reference has been made to H. his Secy. of State on the subject of the appt. of Mr H. J. Keeling as acting Professor of Eng^l. in the Madras College of Eng^l. on certain allowances during the absence of Mr Chatterton on furl.

2. Mr. Chatterton was permitted to avail himself of furl with effect from the 29 Aug 1896, but since he left for England, the Public Works Dept found it impossible ~~for~~ to spare the services of Mr Keeling ^{partly} because his presence was urgently needed in the Krishna District where extensive damage had been done by the floods in the river and partly on account of the paucity of officers, an executive Eng^l having just then proceeded on sick leave. This difficulty was not anticipated either when Mr Chatterton was permitted to avail himself of furl or when the appt. of Mr Keeling was recommended.

vide note flagged B

Mr. Keeling has therefore not yet been able to take up his acting appt. in the College of Eng^l and will not be able to do so until after the Christmas holidays when the return of Captain Ellis will make his services available.

3. The Principal of the College, however, reported that during the months of Sept, Oct, and Nov which immediately precede the annual examinations the services of the Professor of Eng^l are most needed and the S. P. J. proposed that the difficulty should be met by entrusting the duties of the Professor of Eng^l to Major Dove. The Principal, in addition to his own ^{Major Dove} ~~and that he should~~ be granted an additional allowance for the extra work that would devolve upon him. This proposal was accepted by this Govt., and the Acct^l Genl. was asked to report what additional allowance could be granted to Mr J.

Note

The Hon. Mr Grose would give Major Love half the salary Mr Chatterton's post i.e. half of

of Rs 500-50-750 and the Hon Mr Bliss with whom H.E. the Gov^r ^{agrees} would give him only Rs 300 per annum - There does not appear to be any necessity to resubmit the papers to the Honble Mr Grose -

~~Proposed by Mr Bliss~~
~~Proposed by Mr Bliss~~

The Hon Mr Grose's proposal as to the amount was evidently based on Art. 184(ii) C.R. & apparently this is the rate that is admissible supposing the G.O.I. dispensed with the conditions in Art. 186; which is what we are virtually asking them to do, with not,
I fear, much chance of success.
