The Chief Secretary to Government, Educational Department,
Madras.

Sir,

Last year I wrote (vide letter Rob. no. 1702
Saul

So $\frac{416}{18.5-95}$ Exh

of 95 dated 3rd April 1895) requesting that certain repairs might be executed to the Tamkani bungalow occupied by me, and that an additional room might be built to serve as an office room. Government was pleased to order repairs to be done, but stated that an additional room was not necessary.

2. I beg to bring forward the matter once more hoping that in view of the following facts the Government will be pleased to reconsider its former decision, and sanction the building of a room, raising the rent if necessary.

3. The lower storey consists of only two rooms - a drawing and a dining room - and at present I have absolutely no place in which to work and see visitors on business except a corner of the drawing room. My wife - when alone puts up with the annoyance, but it is impossible for the arrangement to continue when there is any one else in the house, and the drawing room has to be used for music, conversation &c. A great part of my work which is by no means light has to be done at home, and in the immediate future in view of a visitor from home, I shall no longer be able to make use of the drawing room.

4. The necessity is so great that if Government will not sanction a room, I shall be compelled to build one at my own cost, but I do not think that Government will think it fair to drive me to this. My request is not - extravagant. I pay a rent of Rs 100/a month; as for the house I have on former occasions written enough of its want of accommodation and inconvenience (partly atoned for by good situation and comparative coolness); and ^{as} for the the out-buildings. I am provided with accommodation for only four horses, and one carriage; there are no horsekeepers quarters and I had to purchase the buildings from my predecessor.

5. I would also remind Government that on a former occasion the construction of a room was actually sanctioned.

6. I request that sanction may not be refused on the ground that new houses are to be built. The necessity is pressing, and the houses may be long in building. Moreover, as it is proposed to still utilize the Jamkani as a dwelling house, the room will not be wasted.

7. I beg for a very early reply.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

your most Obedient Servant,

W. W. W.

FOR ORDERS.

Please see the notes for orders
under cover of G.O. no. 416 Bd.
D 18th May 1895 - flag. A.

In the circumstances stated
the construction of an additional room may perhaps be approved and the P.W.D. be asked to prepare the necessary plan & estimate?

It will be seen that in G.O. no. 666
Bd. D 12th Oct. 1886, the construction of an office room was sanctioned though it was not carried out as the collector subsequently proposed to let the matter lie over. vide
