GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

Read—the following paper:—

From Rao Bahadur V. KRISHNAMA CHARIAR, Registrar of Books, Madras, to the Director of Public Instruction, dated 18th November 1896, No. 312.

I have the honour to submit, for transmission to Government, printed copies of books and periodicals registered during the third quarter of 1896.

2. The number of publications registered during the quarter is 255, of which 209 have been grouped as "books" and 46 as "periodicals."

3. A re-classification of the registered works in the order of their languages shows that 54 are in English including diglot publications, 64 in Tamil, 73 in Telugu, 15 in Malayalam including Mappilla books, 17 in Kanarese, 1 in Tulu, 1 in Konkani, 3 in Hindustani, 27 in Sanskrit including bi-lingual works printed in Grandha and Nagari characters.

4. The preponderance of religious books and tracts is marked as usual, and more than 23 per cent. of the total number registered are works intended for educational purposes.

5. Brief notes on the subject-matter of most of the registered publications are entered in the column of remarks.

6. The printed statement herewith appended contains the extract of entries of copyright registration in respect to 58 works whose proprietors have secured the copyright paying the prescribed fee, except in the case of "Chalukyan Architecture, New Imperial Series, Volume XXI," registered free of charge in the name of Government.

Enclosure.

A new drama by a Malayáli prince of which the plot is briefly this:—The notorious demon Padmasura, of great valour, meditates an attack on Indra, the king of the gods, and seizure of his consort Indráni. He visits Indra's kingdom but could see none. He then sends his sister to bring away Indra's queen during his absence. She succeeds in her attempt, but the loud cry of Indráni brings Jayanta to her assistance. She is rescued from the demon, whose arms, nose, etc., were chopped off. Upon her return, the enraged brother sends his son to punish the evildoers. He subdues the enemies and brings them as prisoners.

Ráman Unnitan, Ammachivídu, Quilon (Travancore).	A poem in the style of Parayan Tullal by the famous Kunchan Nambiyar, the father of a class of poems, lately discovered and published. The poem is based on the well known description of the sabha or hall artistically constructed for Yudhishtira by the famous Maya, and the blunders committed by his envious cousin who tumbled down by mistaking land for water and water for land which excited the laughter of the Pandus and their spouse Páncháli. Duryodhana thus disgraced and crest-fallen returns home to conspire against the Pándu princes. Copyright registered.

1896. 25th July.	12	16mo..	1st ..	300	Printed.	0 0 4	....	The story of a cannibal who attacks Vamadeva in the woods and in his attempt to devour the sage he finds himself absolved from sin by the touch of the sacred ash on the person of the sage, and enabled to look back he remembers the past and narrates the incidents of his past wicked life with repentance. The legend is taken from the Sivapurana to mark the saving power of the sacred ash which Sivites put on their face and other parts of their body.
