My dear Mr. Handley

The learner Jalaluddin Hussain is a smart man who has well recommended to me. He knows English well and read it. He belongs to the Carnatic family and is deserving man with a family. I hope you will be able to give him place of attender that he says is vacant.

I am
Yours sincerely
(sd) J. C. Underwood
Toli Pay master
Carnatic Students.

I have known Jalaluddin Hussain for a long time as a Hindustani learner. He is a nice person of excellent manner. He knows English fairly well and is a very willing, hardworking and trustworthy man & belongs to a good family.

CURRENT NO. 23rd November

His Excellency Sir Arthur...

Madras G.O. No. 18.

Madras Legislative Council

Chief Secretary

24. NOV. 1896

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

is desired...

Respectfully Sheweth.

That the petitioner is the nephew of the late Thangudu... daughter in-law of H. H. Tan...

Wattajah, who was in receipt of the monthly stipend of Rs 50-14-3 from Government out of which the petitioner was supported. On her demise the petitioner respectfully applied to you for a share from her stipend, but was not granted any in spite of several precedents quoted in support of his claim and in the office. That being thus left to struggle for life petitioner with much difficulty obtained the appointment of a Gamastan in the ...

Office but to his misfortune the

piece was soon abolished and he as left again without any means of livelihood & well as in p.

That Col. J. G. Madenwood late Paymaster Carnatic Stipends regarding his Condition and knowing his family provided him with a small appointment in the Surgeon Infirmary at Alai, which is held by the petitioner to this date.

That in his present appointment in the Surgeon the petitioner has no prospects of promotion to cope with his growing family and as the financial condition of the Surgeon cannot permit of a special increase being granted to him he finds it very hard to live on his present poor pay.

That the petitioner is competent to discharge the duties of an ordinary Clerk in any office, but as he has not passed the required test he is debarred from obtaining any post. Under these circumstances petitioner respectfully begs that your Excellency will be to take a merciful view of his

 - fortunate case and Exempt him from the operation of the middle School Examination first class, & that he may be able to secure a small appointment in some public office.

That petitioner request is not an unprecedented one as Govt.
 has from time to time exempted de-men from passing examination.
 Petitioner may here quote the recent case of Abdul Gaffar, clerk in the Surgeon General's office, who was exempted a few months ago.

That as regards his char-
 - cter and qualifications petitioner begs to append copies of Certificates now in his possession and also requests a reference to Col. H. S.
 Stewart Vice President of the Surgeon Infirmary at Alai.

For which act of sheer Charity petitioner as in duty bound will ever pray.

Jalaluddin Hussain
