READ—

Resolution of the Government of India in the Department of Revenue and Agriculture, No. 59—73-1 (M. & E.), dated 3rd October 1893.

RESOLUTION.

UNDER existing arrangements the Provinces of India appoint five members, the Chambers of Commerce four members, and the Native States one member of the Governing Body of the Imperial Institute. In paragraph 6 of the Resolution referred to above a roster was published shewing up to the year 1895-96 the rotation in which Provinces and Chambers of Commerce would elect representatives to serve on the Indian Section of that Body; and it has hitherto been the practice to address Provincial Governments and Chambers of Commerce annually in regard to their nominations.

2. The Government of India now desire to make the arrangements for the nomination of Governors as far as possible automatic, and this end will be secured, so far as Provincial Governments are concerned, by the roster given below, according to which each province will be represented during each term of eight years for 1, 0, 2, 0, 2, 0 years :—

Assam. Madras. Punjab. Bengal. Bombay.	N.-W. P. Burma. C. P. Assam. Madras.	Punjab. Bengal. Bombay. N.-W. P. Burma.	C. P. Assam. Madras. Punjab. Bengal.	Bombay. N.-W. P. Burma. C. P. Assam.	Madras. Punjab. Bengal. Bombay. N.-W. P.	Burma. C. P. Assam. Madras. Punjab.	Bengal. Bombay. N.-W. P. Burma. C. P.
1896 1904 etc.	1897 1905 etc.	1898 1906 etc.	1899 1907 etc.	1900 1908 etc.	1901 1909 etc.	1902 1910 etc.	1903 1911 etc.

The representation of the Chambers of Commerce is similarly provided for in the following roster, under which, in each term of three years, each Chamber will be represented for 2, 0 years :—

Madras. Rangoon. Karachi. Northern India.	Calcutta. Bombay. Madras. Rangoon.	Karachi. Northern India. Calcutta. Bombay.
1896 1899 etc.	1897 1900 etc.	1898 1901 etc.

In future Provincial Governments and Chambers of Commerce should select their representatives in accordance with the above rosters without awaiting any communication from the Government of India.

3. Their nominations should be forwarded so as to reach that Government by the 1st June. If they are not received by that date the nomination may very probably be lost, as the Executive of the Institute has the power of filling up vacancies to which no nominations have been made. The representatives selected must be resident in England during their intended term of office, which will ordinarily be two years commencing from the 23rd July, and should never be less than one year unless under very special circumstances. Their willingness to serve should, if possible, be ascertained beforehand and communicated together with the nomination; but if this has not been done, it would be well to nominate two persons in the alternative, so that if the first declines to serve, the second may be asked to do so.

4. The Foreign Department will arrange for the annual selection of a representative for Native States.

Order.—Ordered, that copies of the above Resolution be forwarded to the several Local Governments and Administrations for information and guidance and to the Chambers of Commerce noted in the margin.
