OFFICE NOTE. 44650

From *The Joint Secretary to
P. W. & Railway Board*

To The Secretary to Local and Municipal Board

With reference to Educational Department, No. 663 dated 28 October 1894 declining to exempt from the Precis Writing Test, P. Ramasawmy Musaliar, Cashkeeper in this office, the undersigned begs to observe that the reasons for rejecting the request have not been specified, but it is surmised that the refusal is based on the ground that the grant of exemption in the present case on the mere claim to long and faithful service is likely to create an inconvenient precedent.

2. It may be mentioned that

The status of men in way office is different in those in other Government offices, in that the men who joined after a particular date are not eligible for pension.
 The appointment does not therefore attract the proper stamp of men and looking at the somewhat technical nature of ^{the} work performed by Ramaswami Musalliar, it is strongly recommended that the exemption asked for may be granted for the present, as a special case, only as far as the next higher post in this office is concerned.
