It would be contrary to principle to give a copy of the D.P. J's report. The Govt have stated fully the reasons for dealing with the case as they did. It appears likely to cause him any annoyance. On the contrary it treats his case very kindly. It will perhaps show Mr. Paterson more clearly than anything else how difficult it is for any Director to satisfy all demands. To refuse a copy of the letter will give Mr.

Paterson ground for supposing that afraid to make known. It that
