Nagercoil,

22nd March 1897.

To His Excellency,

The Governor of Madras.

May it please Your Excellency,

According to the

Regulations relating to Degrees in Arts of the University of London, I beg to ask

Your Excellency whether the Government will make the necessary arrangements for holding the London B.A. examination in Madras in October next. It is my desire to appear for the exam. in Madras, my position as an Educational Missionary of the London Missionary Society making it impossible for me to visit England for the purpose.

I beg to remain

Your Excellency's Obedient Servant,

J. E. Dennison.
