SIR,

I have the honour to report that C. Gopala Aiyar, Head Clerk, Office of the Assistant Inspector of Schools, Tanjore-Trichinopoly Division, who was appointed subprotem Pottery Assistant, School of Arts, availed himself of his joining time from the 10th to 18th October 1896, and joined the school on the 19th idem, but, owing to the very large quantity of stores, he completed taking charge of stock and relieved Parthasarathi Aiyangar, the permanent incumbent, only on the afternoon of the 10th November. The latter in consequence joined his appointment of subprotem librarian and storekeeper in the College of Engineering on the 11th idem and he finished taking over charge of stock of books and instruments only on the afternoon of 8th January 1897.

2. With reference to the enclosed copy of letter from the Accountant General, No 42, dated 8th January last, I beg to request that the periods occupied by C. Gopala Aiyangar and Parthasarathi Aiyangar in taking over charge of their appointments as Pottery Assistant in the School of Arts, and librarian and storekeeper in the College of Engineering respectively, may be treated as joining time, and that both the relieving and the relieved officers be permitted to draw the pay of the same appointment. The relieving officer should be considered to have entered on his duties as soon as he commenced to take charge of stock, and the officer relieved must be considered to have been in charge until all the stock has been delivered.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

FOR ORDERS.

The D.P.I. requests sanction for the extension of joining time of C. Gopala Aiyar & Parthasarathi Aiyangar who have been appointed S. P. Tem - Pottery Dept at the School of Arts & S. P. Tem - Librarian at the College of Engineering respectively. The joining time exceeded thirty days in each case and no satisfactory explanation has been furnished for the extension.

Gopala Aiyar was relieved on the 9th Oct. 96; availed himself of 9 days' joining time from the 10th to 18th Oct and joined the School of Arts on the 19th Oct. From the 19th Oct to the 10th Nov. he occupied in taking charge of stores (23 days) and relieved Parthasarathi Aiyangar on the afternoon of the 10th Nov.

ORDER.

mis

No 224 of 21.4.97

In the circumstances stated the joining time of C. Gopala Aiyar will be extended to the 8th Nov. 96 and for the 9th + 10th of that month he will be granted leave without pay.

2. The time occupied by Parthasarathi Aiyar in taking stock of the books and instruments at the College of Eng. appears to be excessive ^{but} ~~and~~ before passing final orders in his case the Principal of the College will be requested to report the quantity of stock taken over and the time which ^{in his opinion may} ~~might~~ reasonably be allowed for the purpose.

the College of Eng. on the 11th Nov. but did not complete taking charge until the 8th January 1897; he thus actually occupied 59 days in taking stock of books & instruments.

The time occupied is excessively long.

On previous occasions such excessively long periods do not appear to have been required and no precedents could be traced. Further the Director might have posted Gopala Aiyar direct to the College of Eng. thereby avoiding this double change, which has cost 91 days to the state.

As the joining time exceeds 30 days in each case, the sanction of the Govt. of I. is necessary to the extension but there are hardly sufficient grounds on which a recommendation to that Govt. can be based; it is therefore submitted that the D.P.I.'s request may be rejected.

Orders are solicited

Thirty days may be allowed in ~~the~~ ^{the} case of Gopala Aiyar & no more the rest of the time must be without pay.

In regard to Parthasarathi Aiyar

the Principal of the C. may be asked to report the quantity of stock taken over & the time which might reasonably be allowed: 59 days seems excessive: & probably nothing was done in the time held up
