G.O.	No.	Department.	Date.

To

H. C. Joseph Esquire,
District Judge,
South Canara.

The humble petition of
G. Subba Rao, Process-
writer, District Munsif's Court Karikal. dated 24th February 1897.

Most humbly & respectfully Sheweth,

That petitioner has been a Process-writer in this Court on Rs 12 for the last 10 years.

2. That as the High Court in its Circular No. 1667 dated 17th July 1891 ruled that in making appointments or promotions in the Process-service

Service Establishment - preference should be given to those who have duly qualified in Survey, petitioner took the trouble of undergoing the prescribed course of training in that art and secured the requisite certificate in 1892, in the hope of being rewarded with promotion, at least to such extent as he could reasonably expect.

3. That his recommendation for a post of Rs 15, however, was on two previous occasions rejected by the District Court in Sept
1893 and August 1895 respectively, on the ground
that

that petitioner was an unpassed candidate.

4. That Y. Laxumi-narnappa, a Process-writer of this Court drawing Rs 15 per mensem is to retire from the service in May next on attaining the age of 55 years, as already ordered by Your Honor.

5. That petitioner in every way deserves to be promoted to the said post will be clear to Your Honor on a kind reference to the District Munsif, under whom he now serves - and on a kind perusal of the enclosed copies

copies of testimonials granted to the petitioner by his former superiors.

6. That as petitioner was more than 25 years of age at the time of being appointed to his present post in 1887, the Government was, on the kind recommendation made by the then Munsif Mr. Mundaappa Bangera, and as supported by the District Court, pleased to exempt petitioner from the operation of the Age-rule.

7. That petitioner being already about 36 years old is not in a position to study for the Matriculation or Upper Secondary examination recently prescribed for a post of Rs 15.

8. He therefore prays that on a kind consideration of all the above circumstances Your Honor may be graciously pleased to get him exempted from the operation of the examination-rule, so that he may be eligible for the above-mentioned vacancy which will occur here shortly.

For which act of kindness the petitioner shall, as in duty bound,
ever pray.
