COLLECTOR OF SEA CUSTOMS,

To

The Chief Secretary
to Government,
Educational Department,
Madras

SIR,

I have the honor to submit the following case for the favorable consideration and orders of Government.

2. In G.O. No. 200, dated 2nd April 1896. Educational Department, the marginally-noted persons were exempted temporarily for one year from passing the Special Test Examinations noted against their names and allowed to continue in their present appointments with a warning that no further extension would be allowed them.

3. Of the four individuals mentioned above, nos 1, 2 and 3 have passed the requisite tests but no: 3 (C. Soobroya Pillai, the Head Tester) has failed in Precise Writing.

This

1. Mr W. K. Rone. } Sea Customs Dept
2. Mr H. S. Price. }
3. C. Soobroya Pillai } Precise Writing.
4. Mr P. B. Cooper }

This individual was, along with these, exempted for one year from passing the same examination first in 1895 - vide G.O. No 361, Educational, dated 4th May 1895, and on further application he was again exempted for another year - vide G.O. quoted in para 2 above.

4. I would here mention that the nature of his work in the Testing Department is of a purely Scientific and technical character and involves little or no drafting work and as such it does not appear to me that the passing of the Precis Writing Test is necessary in his case. Under these circumstances I request that the Government will be pleased to exempt him from passing the Precis Writing Test so long as he holds the appointment of Tester

5. In this connection I would request that the Government will be pleased to declare that the Precis Writing Test is not necessary for the appointments of ^(a) Tester and ^(b) Assistant Tester of the Sea Customs office, in consideration

(a) Salary Rs 125 per mensem
Do Do Rs 65 Do

Consideration of the fact that these appointments are held only by trained men who have undergone a special course in the Chemical Examiner's Laboratory or some other similar institution
6. Early orders of Government are solicited.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

C. No. 339 of 97

H. E. THE GOVERNOR.

THE HON'BLE MR. BLISS, C.I.E.

THE HON'BLE MR. GROSE, C.I.E.

SUBJECT.

Exemption of the posts of Head and Assistant Testers in the Sea Customs office from the Precis-writing test.

FOR ORDERS.

The collector reports that C. Subbaraya Pillai, Head Tester in the Sea Customs office has again failed to pass the Precis-writing Test, and requests that as the work in the Testing Dept. is of a purely Scientific & technical character and involves little or no drafting work, he (Subbaraya Pillai) may be exempted from passing the test so long as he holds the appointment of Tester; or that it may be declared that the Precis-writing test is not necessary for the appointments of Tester & Asst Tester in the Sea Customs office. If the latter alternative is granted there will be no need to exempt Subbaraya Pillai from the Precis-writing Test. Orders are solicited.

It is better to give a personal exemption to Subbaraya Pillai. If a man is any good scientifically he should be able to pass the Precis.

If a man cannot arrange methodically the results of his scientific analyses or testings he is not much good.

Order of 23 April 1897 No. 233

C. Subbaraya Pillai will be exempted from passing the Precis. Writing Test ^{to enable him to} so long as he holds the post of Head Tester in the Sea Customs Office, Madras.

The Coll. of Madras

I quite agree. As a man fit for the place ought to be able to pass the Precis Writing Test. In this case, however, an exemption may be allowed.
