Most-Humbly, Sheweth-

That your poor Petitioner named Khader Moheaddin son of Jane Bagum Sahiba grandson to the late Nawab Rashed Dowlah brother of equal dignity to the deceased Assem Jah Prince of Arcot begs most humbly and deferentially to bring these few lines for your honor's kind consideration, that Nawab Rashed Dowlah (his grandfather) being as a royal Carnatic Stipendiary was drawing Rs 2700 per mensem by the imperial Govt; after whom Rs 20- as 6-pa only sanctioned to unfortunate widowed mother (Jane Bagum Sahiba) his eldest daughter, who owing to there being her two sons & four daughters and including two maid servants under her daily nourishment has been sustained serious difficulties and molestations days and nights -

Of the foregoing particulars his three respectable uncles named Mub Ebadullah Khan B.D., Mub Anwaruddin Khan B.D. and Mub Abdul Ali Khan B.D. are perfectly aware -

As regards to his present poverty, the petitioner as well as his poor family is even under her dependence, but to his unfortunate circumstance, no suitable chance happened to him any further for his passing the Govt. Examination, however he is being well acquainted

Respectfully Sheweth

The unfortunate petitioner craves most respectfully to your imperial honor, that per post card dated 6th April 97 by the Private Secretary's office received stating that "Chader Mohaddin is informed that his petition dated 30th March 1897 has been forwarded to the Secretary to Govt Local Dept for disposal" but still waiting for certain information -

However the petty case of your poor petitioner only hinges on your royal Excellency's kind investigation, and hoping that your gracious honor may not leave him unemployed a bit, some merits & real claims are as plain as mirror, which needed nothing to further verification, & like exemption

Madras, When your honor shall however convey entire satisfaction, and if properly speaking it is a rule almost fixed that no vacancy can be had without passing any Govt. Examination -

It is quite true and genuine that every one of your obedient subjects opens his tongue in your lofty commendation & high praise particularly on your honor's being most popular and Compassionate towards the royal Carnatic family - Moreover your obedient petitioner who has been well experienced & qualified in English & Persian and brought in him some starvation of days and nights, for want of exemplar together with the Govt. Employment -

In conclusion the petitioner hopes fully that your honor's life shall however soon succeed him and oblige - which act of kindness your poor petitioner shall ever pray almighty for your honor's long life and prosperity -

The petitioner begs to remain

Madras

Most Respectfully Sheweth.

As the poor petitioner begs most humbly and deferentially to state, that per postcard No 3 dated 19th instant by the Private Secretary to the Govt reached to hand stating that "his petition dated 12th April 1897 has been transferred to the Secretary to Govt Local and Municipal department and will be disposed of in due course by His Excellency the Governor in Council" but of all your honor's valuable assistance is necessarily needed for the purpose, otherwise nothing can be done in his behalf, as the Most High has universally entrusted your authority to have appreciated those are in the Carnatic family wherein your poor obedient petitioner is appertained &

The petition further craves to say, that your Gracious honor is so kind and benevolent to the said family, the particulars cannot be at all mentioned in a few concise and brief words - It is actually of great consequence that your auspicious lordship undertaking heavy pains for their profound utility as well as their educational improvement of which they are retained in perfect convenience. It is quite accurate and trustworthy though of all the Governors that preceded at Madras, none so highly exalted his auspicious and popular name in the hearts of all the Mahomedans generally and in the Carnatic royal blood specially -

As regards to their essential subsistence and livelihood whatever rules of reformation issued by your Royal Excellency are, in fact, out of expunctions. In short, the petitioner begs to entreat, that in case of your honor's so being kind to the family in all occasions, then how shall deprive the poor unfortunate petitioners particularly in his long felt representation of the exemption, whose grandfather Nawab Rashed Dowlat was a renowned noble baron at the locality which needs little to solicit in details -

Moreover recently a man in the Carnatic Circle by name of Mub. Abdul Basit son of the late Ghulam Mohamed has been exempted in the Lower Secondary Examination and even appointed being as Alkhari Inspector -

The petitioner further feels it incumbent on him to mention, that none in sight appears to him, but your gracious honor to consider duly his merits to the exemption as well as his present hard starvation & shall however oblige him on the topic with view to the above reasonable example just mentioned, the petitioner has even entitled to however that one Mub. Abdul Basit is not equal to the petitioner in rank & Ghulam Mub. his late father & that of deceased Nawab Rasheed Dowlah his grandfather -

For which act of kindness & charity the petitioner shall in duty bound ever pray to God of almighty for your long life and prosperity
