To His Excellency the Right Honourable
 Sir Arthur Crichton Avelock,
 C. M. G. K. C. M. G. G. C. M. G.
 Governor of Madras
 Fort Saint George
 Madras.

May it please your Excellency

The humble memorial of D. Jagann
 - tharow, Dufferbund, Ganyam Senior Assistant Collectors Office, respect fully sheweth

That the memorialist entered Government Service in the early part of 1888 as a Dufferbund in the Deputy Tahsildar's office, Ichapur. Not long after which, these parts being visited by famine, had to strain himself to the utmost to day and night in order to afford the happiest satisfaction of his superiors whose testimonials are herewith produced.

Without hope of any recreation, he then took up his Census duties immediately followed and pleased his superiors with

with similar accuracy.

Given I understand his ways of dutifulness, the then Divisional Officer brought him over this office and would post him to Superior Grades from time to time. Nay, judging the merits of the memorialist the present Divisional Officer was condescended to recommend him to the Collector for an exemption from the Examination rules. (Copy of which enclosed).

The memorialist had, soon after, under orders of the same Officer, to work, at the expense of his health, as an acting Clerk on Rs 7½ in the Tahsil dar's office for a year, where he discharged the duties hard for 2 men of ordinary stamp to perform.

In this as well as in others the memorialist begs to assure your Lordship that he left no stone unturned in the performance of these duties to the entire appreciation of one and all his superiors.

In fact proof of this fact, it has pleased the Tahsil dar as well as recommended the memorialist to the Collector for exemption exemption.

The memorialist appeared at the late Middle School Examination but was placed in the II Class. The memorialist could not study further for want of pecuniary aid.

It is for his authorities to judge how far he is worse off than those passed.

In consideration of his long and faithful service (9 years), of his hard and untiring application, of his poor salary of Rs 7 loaded with double duty at times, of his repeated failure of health, the memorialist humbly prays that your excellency may be pleased to exempt him from the Examination Rules as a Special Case once for all and to permanently grant him footing in Superior Service.

Many persons of the stamp of your excellency's memorialist have received help in this respect and the memorialist accordingly venture to approach your Lordship as per G. O. Communicated in in Board's Proceedings No. $\frac{191}{26.96}$

For which set of benevolence and charity he will ever feel grateful.

Your Excellency's most Obedient and dutiful servant.

Enclo. to N. C. No. $\frac{690}{1897}$
Dated 16-4-1897

From P. J. P. Rice Esquire
Acting Junior Assistant
Collector of Gangia.

To The Collector of Gangia.

Dated January 1896.

Sir,
As directed in your letter (No. 1124 of 96 dated 27th August 1895), I have the honor to submit for favourable Considera-tion and recommendation to Government as a special one for sanction the Case of D. Jagannadharan, Dufferin of my Office.

From the service book of D. Jagannadha-
-now it appears that he was first entertained in Government Service in 1888 as a Dufferin in the Ichapur Deputy & Tahsildar's office and worked there till the end of March 1890. In famine year of 1889 his services were engaged for six months as a clerk on Rs. 10 and he is said to have deserved the promotion he

he was given by his constant attention to duty. Subsequently he was transferred to the Gayaam Deputy Tahsildar's office where he was for about a year. During his stay he is reported to have done his best to prove a useful assistant to the Deputy Tahsildar, especially in Census.

Gayaam fever, which was most commonly prevalent in these days on account of which his health was impaired, necessitated his transfer at his own request to Lompit.

In 1892 he was specially taken to this office as the services of an English knowing Duffaband were badly needed. In 1893 he was Temporary Record Clerk on Rs 15 for six months in the Tahsildar's office and acted several times as a Clerk on Rs 15 and 20.

I know that he has considerable experience of office routine and is quite good enough for a Saluk or Gumatshik appointment. Excepting him."

the fact that he could not secure a pass in the first class in the Middle School Examination he is in other respects above the average Middle School Candidates who passed in the 1st Class. He knows English, Telugu and Oriya and writes a fair and running hand. He is hard-working and intelligent.

Not to speak of the difficulties to secure passed Candidates and the consequent inconvenience which stand in the way of proper despatch of business, Jagannath Rao Pantulu seems to me to deserve exemption since he has proved himself useful in many ways in my office, ever since I have been in charge and since he is now thoroughly acquainted with the working of the Department.

I therefore beg to recommend him for exemption from Examination rules as he possesses sufficient knowledge of English which renders him eligible to hold a permanent post in a Superior

Superior Service.
I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your most obliging letter.

Illi Jagannath Panth was a very hard working and trustworthy man belonging to respectable family and of a reputation. He remained for some time as an Assistant and for certain times as an acting clerk during the last famine, while in charge of the Ichapur taluk.

He is a sub-magistrate. Unfortunately for him he is suspected. He has been seen here for some time and is now in the prison.
