but the main objection is that our experts devote their investigations to the hills and to the plains. The late Port. Minister of service did little more than the Nilgiris & Travancore; & W. Thurston has not gone much farther afield.

GOVERNMENT MUSEUM,

PANTHEON ROAD, EGMORE,

Madras, 15 May 1897.

My dear Mr Forbes,

Best my telegrams were unintelligible and (or) there is difficulty about my going away I write to explain my position Having had no answer to my letter (official) of 14th April I should have come on to-day had it not been for your letter which having been missent by the post office only came yesterday. evening - I had no idea there could be any difficulty - The College is closed for the vacation and I thought as Supdt of the Museum I should take this opportunity of going on tour Thurston of course frequently does so and I am making the arrangements here which he usually makes - I should have left on Friday but stayed down to see to the opening of the building to the public which took place today.

I hope to hear from you tomorrow and that all will be well.

Yours sincerely
A. J. Gardner
