as to whether the exemption applied for may be granted? From ed b of the application it will be seen that a passed candidate applied for the post but has not been appointed.

The date of commencement of the ag.
appointment has not been given.

7/16/97. The application of a Brahmin for exemption of duly qualified by exam: was rejected on the ground that he had no experience of O.L.S. & 3 D.P.W. work. But the duties are only clerical, & can be readily picked up by any intelligent man. It is very common for subordinates to attempt to procure exemption for unqualified volunteers who hang about the office & get put in to act on occasions, on the plea that they have had experience. But what has in effect decided this is that such experience unaccompanied by certain educational abilities as tested & exact is not to be preferred.

We may say that as a named man applied the exemption might not be given.
