Application for exemption from Examination Rules of unpassed Candidate for employment in the Office of The Inspector of Salt, Akbari and Customs Department, Lule Circle, Chhatrapur Sub-Division

Name, age and educational qualifications of the unpassed candidate for whose employment sanction is sought.	The post in which it is proposed to employ him and nature of the appointment, i.e., whether acting or sub. pro tem. or temporary.	The period for which the appointment is expected to last.	The period for which sanction is now sought (with dates of commencement and of termination).	Is this a first application of a previous sanction? quote the previous order and state for how long been already employed.	one for a renewal in the later case granting sanction the candidate has accepted.	What steps have been taken to procure the services of a passed candidate and with what result.	Recommendation of the Head of the Department.	REMARKS.

K. Ranganathaiah Age 27 years. 2 nd clerk Sub-pro tem attached to Lule Circle.	Permanent 2 nd clerk	Permanent Vacancy	Permanently	Renewal of previous application, the sanction thereof having been accorded by the Government in its order No 85, dated 6 th February 1897. Communicated with Board Proceedings No 718 Alis, dated 10 th February 1897.	Every order made to procure the services of a passed candidate has been unsuccessful.	The clerk was first appointed on 28 th June 1896 as 2 nd clerk, Lule Circle office having been exempted from the examination rules. Vice Government Order No 690 Educational, dated 6 th November 1896. Communicated with Board Proceedings No 4868 dated 22 nd November 1896. On 19 th December 1896 he was promoted to a clerk's post in Ro 20 in the same office.

* Vice Government Order No 85 dated 6th February 1897. embodied in Board Proceedings No 718 dated 10th February 1897 in which sanction was accorded for his temporary exemption from the examination rules. Now, I beg to state, that the clerk ever since he has been appointed, has been discharging his duties to the entire satisfaction of his superior officers. As regards the qualifications and competency of the clerk, I need not mention here again as the Inspector of Customs, Chhatrapur Sub-Division has already strongly recommended him for exemption in view of his being appointed as a clerk or sub-inspector. The individual is well suited for both the appointments. Vice his letter No 3066, dated 19th December 1896. Indeed I must venture to add that the clerk is intelligent and hardworking and possesses a fair knowledge of office work having 8 years service in the Department. I now beg therefore that he may be exempted altogether from the examination rules so that he may be permanently retained in the clerical establishment, and also to fill up any vacancy in the grade of sub-inspector in consideration of his physical fitness and long experience in the Department. I must also beg to add that permanent exemption of this man which I most strongly recommend from the examination for admission to public service, will enable him to appear for the Departmental tests and if he qualifies, the Department will gain by having a qualified man whereas it now is obliged to do with a man who has not passed a single departmental test. The clerk is most eager to appear for his departmental tests and from my knowledge of his qualifications, I feel confident that he is able to pass tests B, C and D and to in the higher grades at once if he could appear.

S. No 1103.

Submitted in original to the Deputy Commissioner of Salt, Abkani and Customs Department Northern Division with strong support

2. Ever since his appointment as clerk in this Sub Division, K. Rengunarkula has been working very satisfactorily and is deserving of favourable consideration. The difficulty of securing the services of passed candidates still continues, so that the undersigned is strongly in favour of supporting the Inspector's recommendation to exempt K. Rengunarkula from the Examination Rules, in view of his being appointed as a permanent clerk, or sub Inspector for either of which he is fully competent.
