The Chief Secretary
to Government Cotacamund.

Sir,

In January 1895, the undersigned received a communication from his Solicitor Mr. L. H. Chapman Cotacamund that his offer to lease the Lawrence Asylum Press made by him on his behalf to the Committee of the Lawrence Asylum had been accepted by them and would be submitted by them to Government for ratification. Under these circumstances the undersigned refused several offers of employment and only after 9 months idleness took up the present employment temporarily. He has now a permanent birth offered and it is with a view of ending the suspense that he now addresses Government direct, trusting to have an early reply, as to their decision.

He has also written today to the Committee of the Lawrence Asylum Cotacamund to say that he has sent in the above letter
