DOWLAISHWARAN, 26. May 1897.

SIR,

I have the honour to bring to your notice that one S. Ananda Rao, a clerk 5th Class 1st grade now employed in the Godavari Eastern Division was first entertained as a Tempory Gunastak in the year 1870 and was promoted to the above clerk's post in 1873 and has been in the same post since then, without any promotion, on account of his being an unpassed man.

2. From the time of his entertainment he has worked very satisfactory and gained the good will and opinion of all the officers and Subordinates under whom he served. The Enclosed Certificate testifies with how much zeal and activity he has performed his duties

* 13 in Number
he returned.
