READ Letter from the Conservator of Forests, Southern Circle
 dated 21st May 1897. Ref on car No 4370.

Resolution

Submitted for the orders of Government
 2. Iyacannoo Pillai who is reported to have passed the Middle School Examination in the 2nd class was previously employed as a Range clerk on the temporary establishment in Mudumalai. The Conservator Southern Circle appointed him as acting Forester on Rs 20 in the same Range on 1st March 1897. The District Forest Officer reports that Iyacannoo Pillai has worked well and intelligently.

3. As observed by the Conservator it is difficult to get qualified and suitable man for unhealthy localities like Mudumalai, for when one is secured he accepts the appointment only as a makeshift and leaves it as soon as he can get something better. Having regard to this fact the Board ventures to support the Conservator's application for the exemption of Isaac Annas Pillai to hold good only so long as he is employed in the Mudumalai Range.
