From the Honourable Mr. D. DUNCAN, M.A., D.Sc., LL.D., Director of Public Instruction, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated Madras, 19th June 1897, No. 6647.

Referring to G.O., No. 309, Educational, dated 31st May last, I have the honour to suggest that rule 4 of the rules for the holding of the London University examinations may be amended as follows:—

If a candidate withdraws his name or fails to present himself at the examination or to pass it, the fee shall not be returned to him (except in the case of those who, for adequate reasons, are compelled to withdraw their candidature more than a month before the examination); but he may be admitted to subsequent examinations on payment into the Bank of Madras or a Government treasury of a fee of one pound on each occasion."
