FROM

COLLECTOR OF Timinelly

TO

THE Secretary to Government
Local Municipal and Educational Department
Ootacamund.

SIR,

I have the honour to submit the following Case for the orders of Government.

2. One Sankaranarayana Pillai an attender employed in the Local Fixed Account branch of the Collector's office on Rs 10 applies for mutual exchange with a gollah on Rs 8 in the Huzar Treasury. He has been employed from January 1900 and is now 35 years old, having been born in the year 1862. He has not passed either the Primary Examination or any examination which would qualify him under the present rules for a post in the inferior service under Government. I think that under Article 62 of Civil Service Regulations age Certificate is not necessary in his Case, but I doubt, whether by analogy, I can hold that want of Examination qualification is not a bar to appoint him as a gollah in the Government Service.
