From the Rev. W. L. Cassels

To the Secy to Government
Educational Department
Madras

Sir, I am much obliged for copy of order R. No 297, 26th July. 1897, & the rules respecting examinations in connection with the London University.

The Registrar of the University of London, writing to me on May 26, 1897, said: — "No further examinations in connection with this University will be held in India after this year."

No intimation to this effect
has been received

11/2
31/8/97

But as I have since seen Order No 394 Educational, 14th June 1893, on the subject, I conclude it has since not been arranged to conduct the said examinations in Madras.
And I hope this is the case, as I am personally concerned in the matter, although I hope the matter will not be talked about.

2. Although I am an M.A. of Cambridge yet there is another degree that I desire, if possible, to obtain. It is not possible for me now to obtain the same from the Cambridge University, but I might obtain it from the University of London. It is for this reason that I desire to pass the Matric. (London) as soon as possible.

3. The letter I received from the Registrar (London Univ.) prevented my writing to you in June offering myself as a Candidate for the Jan^r examⁿ ⁽¹⁸⁹⁸⁾ (London Matric), & paying the usual fees &c. — otherwise I should certainly have done so.

Owing to this the last stated date (Jul^{1st}) for receiving names has passed; but I hope, under the circumstances, & seeing that the omission was not due to neglect on my part, it may be decided to receive my application, altho' somewhat late.

4. If this concession can be granted I will, of course, immediately pay the fee into the Bank of Madras, & take the other necessary steps. Not having been educated in this country, I cannot, of course, produce a certificate from the Head of a First or Second grade College to the effect that I have reasonable chance of success; but as I am a graduate, in high honours, of Cambridge & former foundation scholar of St. John's College, this will perhaps be taken for granted.

I am the honour Bc
Tr,

Your most obedient servant
W. C. Cassels.

P.S. I see applications must reach London before Sep. 10th — there is therefore no time to be lost & I have ventured to make this suggestion. I was admitted as a Candidate for the examⁿ in June last, & have examination card No 335 to show in proof of this; but I c^d not then go up as my privilege leave was stopped. I have a letter from the Registrar stating that I can be admitted again for a half-fee, but to make sure I am ready to pay full fee again.
