The "C. Raitt Dunhill Prize."

Accepting the endowment of Rs. 1,000 offered by Miss Dunhill for the purpose of founding a prize in connection with the Medical College.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From J. B. BILDERBECK, Esq., M.A., Acting Director of Public Instruction, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated Madras, 19th August 1897, No. 9859.

With reference to the enclosed copy of a letter from the Senior Chaplain, Church of Scotland, Madras, No. A-72, dated 12th May 1897, I have the honour to request that you will be so good as to move the Government to accept the prize endowment of Rs. 1,000 offered by Miss Dunhill and to instruct the Accountant-General to arrange for the investment of the fund in $3\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. Government securities in the joint names of the Director of Public Instruction and the Principal, Medical College, who, it is suggested, should be the trustees of the endowment. Miss Dunhill is prepared to pay all charges for premium, commission, &c., that may be incurred in purchasing Rs. 1,000 Government paper.

2. I also submit, for the approval of Government, a draft of the rules drawn up by the Medical College Council to regulate the award of the "C. Raitt Dunhill Prize."

ENCLOSURES.

From Revd. F. Archibald, Senior Chaplain, Church of Scotland, to the Principal, Medical College, Madras, dated 12th May 1897, No. A-72.

I have the honour to inform you that Miss Dunhill has placed in my hands the sum of Rs. 1,000 which she desires me to hand over to you on the following conditions:—

1. That the money shall be invested in Government paper, and that the interest thereof be given as a yearly prize to a student (male or female) of your college.

The prize to be either books or instruments.

2. That the prize to be called "The C. Raitt Dunhill Prize" in memory of her brother who was a graduate of the Medical College, Madras.

On hearing from you that you accept these conditions, I shall forward you a cheque for the amount.

PARAGRAPH 2 of the resolution of the Medical College Council held on Wednesday the 4th August 1897.

"The 'C. Raitt Dunhill Prize,' which shall take the form of books or of medical instruments, will be awarded annually on the recommendation of the College Council to the student, male or female, who gains the greatest number of marks at a competitive examination in Physiology to be held during the last week of the autumn session.

2. The question papers which will be the same for all grades of students will be set and the other details of the examination carried out by the Professor of Physiology, who will report to the Council the results of the examination.

3. The examination will be open to students of all departments of the college who have attended the Professor's class of Physiology held during the session at the end of which the examination is to be held."

ORDER—No. 516, Educational, dated 9th September 1897.

His Excellency in Council accepts with thanks the endowment of Rs. 1,000 generously offered by Miss Dunhill for the purpose of founding a prize in connection with the Medical College.

2. The rules drawn up for the award of the prize are approved.

3. The Director of Public Instruction and the Principal of the Medical College will be appointed trustees of the endowment and the Accountant-General will be requested to arrange for the investment of the fund in Government securities.
