To

The Director of Public Instruction,

Madras.

Sir,

The recently revised by-laws of the Madras University having been sanctioned by Government in its order No 186 of 20th March 1897, I have now the honour to request that Government be moved to sanction the appointment of a lecturer on General Biology in the Medical College who will deliver the first course of lectures on the subject from August 1897. The course of general Biology now prescribed by these revised by-laws covers the ground formerly traversed by the course of lectures on Botany and Comparative Anatomy which are now abolished and to each of which an honorarium of Rs. 700 was attached.

The curriculum embraced by this subject is of such a wide extent that it must be included as a winter session course and in consideration of the more prolonged course as compared with the subjects which it displaces and of the difficulty in procuring a Professor with the special knowledge required I strongly recommend that the course be ranked as a minor Professorship carrying therewith the pay of Rs. 200 per mensem.

I have &c

SIR,

With reference to the enclosed copy of a letter from the Principal, Medical college, No. 3 dated 19th April last, I have the honour to request that you will be good enough to obtain the very early sanction of Government for the appointment of a Lecturer on General Biology in the Medical college on Rs. 800 per mensem.

2. The recommendation of the Principal—which is supported by the Surgeon General—has arisen out of the necessity for making adequate provision for the course of lectures in General Biology which is now required by the revised by-laws of the Madras University sanctioned in G.O. No. 166 Edl. dated 20th March 1897, and which takes the place of the course of lectures in ~~Biology~~ ^{Botany} and Comparative Anatomy obtaining under the superseded curriculum.

3. As, under the old arrangement, an honorarium of Rs. 700 was attached to each of the lectureships in Botany and Comparative Anatomy, the sum of Rs. 1400 will be available to meet a considerable portion of the pay of the new appointment. As the new course of lectures is to commence in the approaching winter session of the Medical College, the above amount already sanctioned will suffice to meet the proposed salary during the current official year. Provision will be made in the budget for 1898-99 for the full cost of the new appointment.

Enclosed to, to C No 77388 1897

To

The Secretary to Government,

Local & Municipal Department.

SIR,

With reference to this office letter No 7135 dated 1st ultimo, I have the honour to report that the Winter session of the Medical College, commenced this week and that, for want of a Professor, lectures on General Biology cannot be delivered.

2. Pending orders on the proposal contained in the letter above referred to, I beg that you will be good enough to obtain the very early sanction of Government for the consolidation of the two existing lectureships in Botany and Comparative Anatomy, in view to providing allowances for a temporary lecturer on General Biology up to the 31st March next. By this arrangement the sum of Rs. 1400 will be paid to one man who will thus draw for seven months what is equivalent to a salary of Rs. 200 per mensem.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

In the revised by-laws relating to the medical degree examinations sanctioned in S.O. no. 166 Ed & 20th March '97 the course of 40 lectures in Botany has been omitted from the ^XCurriculum prescribed for the Preliminary Scientific Examination and the course of 40 lectures in Comparative Anatomy from the *Curriculum prescribed for the First M.B. & C.M. Examination, and in their place one course of General Biology (the number of lectures not given) is ^Qprescribed for the new First M.B. & C.M.
Examination. This change renders the continuance of the lectureships in Botany and Comparative Anatomy at the Medical College unnecessary and necessitates the appointment of a Lecturer on General Biology. Accordingly the Dy. D.P.O. proposes the appointment of a Lecturer on General Biology on Rs 200 per mensem and states that a considerable portion of the pay of the new appointment can be met from the honoraria attached to the lectureships in Botany and Comparative Anatomy. Apparently the D.P.O. means that the lectureship should be held through out the year by a Medical Officer attached to the General Hospital, as recommended by the Principal of the Medical College. If so, it is not stated whether any Medical Officer attached to the General Hospital is available for the Professorship. As a fact the Additional Medical Officer at the General Hospital who has ~~no~~ at present no Medical College duties is available. This proposal, however, cannot profitably be considered apart from the reorganization of the Medical College staff and its duties - which subject is being dealt with in the Public Dept. vide G.O. no. 263 Public & 12th March '97. No reply to this G.O. has been received yet.

Recognising this difficulty the D.P.O. requests in no 938 sanction for the appointment of a temporary lecturer on General Biology on Rs 1400. Under art 89 (b) of the C.S.R. the sanction of the Secy of State is required for the payment to an officer of a honorarium of more than Rs 1000. This proposal cannot therefore be approved. If the proposed honorarium is limited to Rs 1000, the appointment will be brought within the powers of sanction of the Govt of India. A honorarium of ~~more than~~ Rs 1000 ~~does not~~ appears to be sufficient remuneration for a course of lectures on General Biology. If the course of lectures can be delivered by any person who is not already an officer of Govt, this Govt can sanction a temporary Lectureship on Rs 200 per mensem. But a person competent to hold the post does not appear to be available. orders are solicited.

K.O.

The D.P.I. in consultation with the Prin. Med. Coll. had better make the best temporary arrangements possible either by employing an officer with a honorarium of Rs 1000 or employing an outsider on Rs 200 p.m.

J.R. 23/9/97

The officer will explain why an urgent paper of this sort was kept for 5 weeks

It is certainly thought to have been put up wrong.

Yes J.R. 27/9/97
It is much regretted that by an oversight the urgency of the paper was not noted - in fact it was not marked "urgent" in the docket - as required by rule - and so the paper was allowed to lie for more than four weeks.

THIS

N. 557 729 Sep 1897

Pending final orders regarding the reorganization of the Medical College Staff and their duties, the Government considers that for filling the place of the Lecturer in General Biology, the Director of Public Instruction should, in consultation with the Principal of the Medical College, make the best temporary arrangements possible, either by employing an officer already in the Service of Government and paying him an honorarium of Rs 1000 or by engaging the services of some competent person who is a ~~non-official~~ ^{member} on a salary of Rs 200 per mensem.

Person who is a non-official

The P.O. has issued from here. Please inform the P.O. that will be from this to the done 2/10/97

2. Under Art: 89 (b) of the Civil Service Regulations the payment of an honorarium of Rs 1000 requires the sanction of the Government of India.

 Should it therefore be decided to remunerate the lecturer in this form, the matter should be reported to Government, in view of the necessary application being made to the Government of India for sanction.
