Enclosure No. 1
To letter No. 3183 73-9-7
From Inspector-General of Police.

I understand that Valiyakath Abu Bucker, a clerk in the District Police Office, has memorialised Government for exemption from the operation of the Examination Rules. Abu Bucker is a young Moplah and belongs to a very respectable but a poor family in Ponnani Taluq. His parents had no means to give him an English Education but with great difficulties they taught him up to the Matriculation Standard in which he had the misfortune to fail once or twice. His present examination qualifications are certainly a bar to his future rise in the Superior Grades of the Public Service. Considering the backward state of the Moplah Community and the difficulties of inducing them to appreciate the benefits of education, the undersigned, as the High Priest of that community in Malabar, begs leave to urge for the very favourable consideration of Government that sanctioning Abu Bucker's prayer of exemption will not only be an individual help to a poor but deserving young man, but will also serve as an encouragement to other members of the community, to effect whose emancipation the Government has shown its readiness on more occasions than one.

PONNANI,

22nd June 1897.

VALIYA THANGAL.

I respectfully beg leave to certify that Abu Bucker, a clerk in the office of the Superintendent of Police, Malabar is a poor but well-behaved and promising youth. He could not pass Higher Examinations owing to his misfortune and poverty. Want of examination qualifications precludes him from competing for the Superior Grade of the Public Service. He has therefore, I understand, memorialised Government for exemption from the operation of the Examination Rules. I would respectfully point out that he deserves such exemption which will at the same time be of immense use as a direct encouragement to his other backward brethren. For which, I will take the liberty of expressing the thanks of the community in general.

CALICUT,

27th June 1897.

"Khan Sahab."

I respectfully beg to submit that the prayer of Abu Bucker, a clerk in the District Police Office, Malabar, for exemption from the operation of the Examination Rules, deserves a favourable consideration at the hands of Government. His indigent circumstances were the main cause of this prayer, as they deprived him of means to pass Higher Examinations, a qualification eminently necessary for rise in the Superior Grades of the Public Service. His exemption will serve as a direct encouragement to other ignorant members of the Moplah Community whose amelioration, we feel thankful, the Government has so much at heart.

Calicut, 19th June 1896.*

V. Abu Bucker was a pupil in the Matriculation Class of this School during the years 1893 and 1894 and part of 1895. He appeared for the Matriculation Examination of December 1893 and 94 from this School, but failed. He is intelligent and hard-working and writes a very neat hand. His conduct during nearly five years, when he was under me, was satisfactory.

V. ABU BUCKER.

This is to certify that Valiyakath Abu Bucker, Clerk, District Police Office, Malabar, who has memorialised Government for exemption from the operation from the Examination Rules, is a poor but deserving young man. As a Thangal I occupy a representative position in the Moplah community. To serve an example to the community in general which is proverbially backward, I would beg leave to urge that his prayer of exemption be granted to enable him to compete for appointments in the Higher Grade of the Public Service.

V. ABU BUCKER.

TO
HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL,
FORT St. GEORGE,
MADRAS.

THROUGH

THE SUPERINTENDENT OF POLICE,
MALABAR.

The humble Memorial of Valiyakath Abu Bucker,
Clerk, Office of the Superintendent of Police, Malabar.

MOST RESPECTFULLY SHOWETH,

That Memorialist is a Moplah of South Malabar. He studied up to the Matriculation and appeared for it, but failed. His brother a School Master fell sick and afterwards died. Memorialist was then unable to continue his studies but to look out for employment. The Superintendent of Police, Malabar was kind enough to enlist him as a Head Constable for his Office. For some months previously, he was an Attendar in the Collector's Office. The only recognised Examination that Memorialist has passed is the Lower Secondary. His failure in the Matriculation does not count. His prospects are therefore very limited.

The South Malabar Moplahs being steeped in ignorance are, as is well known to your Excellency, the most uncivilized, and therefore the most dangerous classes of the society. Government therefore has been pleased to extend a merciful hand to them and hold out to the deserving among them certain special indulgence in the matter of Education.

Memorialist can write a very good hand in English and Malayalam. His superiors will testify to his industry and devotion to duty.

Memorialist most humbly begs therefore that Your Excellency will be graciously pleased to exempt him from the operation of the Examination Rules so far as the Upper Secondary is concerned, and thus enable him to rise in the Public Service if his superiors find him deserving it in other respects. Memorialist is now 23 years of age and but for this Examination bar, has a bright future before him. *

For which act of kindness, Memorialist will be Ever grateful.

VALIYAKATH ABU BUCKER

CALICUT, 1st July 1897.

* He begs also that he may be permitted to appear for the Criminal Lower so that he may, if considered otherwise fit, rise to the Grade of Inspector in the Police Department.
