C. No. 951 of 97

SUBJECT.

Purchase of a building adjoining the
Reformatory school.

FOR ORDERS.

Close to the Reformatory school and just above the fort moat on the north-western side is an old private building. It is said to command the road leading from the fort, by which the pupils of the Reformatory school attempt to escape. It is now for sale. The Superintendent, Reformatory school, considers that in view of its close proximity to the Reformatory it should be prevented from falling into the hands of undesirable neighbours, and should therefore be acquired by Government. It is also argued that, in view of the increasing strength of the school, every available accommodation in the fort or near it should be secured from the school. It is stated that the building can be used either as the residence of the Headmaster or as a quarantine block for the school.

The Govt. approved the purchase of the building for the residence of the Headmaster in G.O. No. 2423 Judl., dated 26th October 1887 and asked the Inspector-General of Jails to ascertain the price of the building and to get a valuation of it prepared by the Executive Engineer. In submitting the valuation statement obtained from the Executive Engineer, the Inspector-General reported that it was unnecessary to acquire the building, as the headmaster, who was a Brahmin, was not willing to live in it. The Govt. thereupon ordered that no action need be taken for the purchase of the building—vide G.O. No. 429 Judl., dated 15th February 1888.

The Executive Engineer now estimates the present value of the building at Rs. 600 and the cost of repairing it at Rs. 500. He seems to be of opinion that, even without the expenditure of Rs. 500 on repairs, the building may, with judicious patching, be made to last for some years.

Orders are solicited as to whether the purchase of the building may be sanctioned?
