SIR,

In returning Endorsement No 1997 dated 24th instant, I have the honour to state that I approve of the changes in the By-laws adopted by the Senate. In fact, all the changes originated with me, and I am glad to see that the Senate, during my absence on leave, has seen fit to adopt them. The omission of By-laws 77 and 78 is intended to simplify and shorten the proceedings at the Convocation for conferring degrees. Instead of the candidates being presented to the Chancellor in ill-arranged batches involving a tedious waste of time, they will be presented as at a levee.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
