SIR,
With reference to your endorsement N^o. 11199 (herewith returned) I have the honor to report that the stipend for A. Pereira was stopped with effect from 1st July last, in accordance with the practice invariably followed in the case of dismissed students.
2. Passage to Singapore has not been granted to Pereira, he having made no application up to date for the same.
Should he do so hereafter, there would seem no objection to provide it, as desired in the Honorable the Colonial Secretary's letter to Government.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
your most obedient
W. E. Browne Esq.
Principal
Medical College.
